OFFICIAL TEXT WILL BE RELEASED TONIGHT

It must go by way of Gibraltar and Malta and then to Rome and overland lines to Vienna and Berlin. As a courtesy a copy is to be delivered to Count Bernstorff the German ambassador. Some time this evening the state department will give out copies for publication in tomorrow's newspapers in the United States.

Deny Nature of German Reply

The German embassy today issued this statement: "The German embassy stated today that no statement or information had been given by the embassy or any official of the embassy concerning what response would be made to the American note regarding the Lusitania. "This was brought out by statements appearing in the press this morning to the effect that officials of the German embassy have outlined the position of the German government towards the American note regarding the sinking of the Lusitania and have declared that the reply would be a polite but firm refusal to cease submarine warfare against belligerent merchant ships. "It was pointed out that the embassy itself so far was ignorant of the terms of the American note, that it had received no instructions whatever from the German government regarding the note, and finally it was declared that no official connected with the embassy had expressed any opinion on the subject at all."

Principal Points Of Note

The principal points in the note are substantially as follows: 1. The United States government calls attention to the various incidents in the war zone pre-claimed by Germany around the British Isles; the sinking of the British liner Falzon, with the loss of Leon C. Thresher, an American; (Continued on Page 6)

London, May 13.—The British battleship Goliath has been torpedoed in the Dardanelles.

Announcement of the loss of the Goliath was made in the house of commons this afternoon by Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty.

British Submarines Penetrate Dardanelles.

Mr. Churchill also announced that the British submarine E 14 had penetrated through the Dardanelles and into the sea of Marmora, sinking two Turkish gunboats and a Turkish transport. Mr. Churchill, in announcing the loss of the Goliath, said: "The Goliath was torpedoed last night in a torpedo attack by destroyers while protecting the French flank just inside the straits. "Twenty officers and 160 men were saved, which I fear means that over 500 lives were lost. "The admiral commanding at the Dardanelles also telegraphed that the submarine E 14, which with so much daring penetrated to the Sea of Marmora, has reported that she sank two Turkish gunboats and a large Turkish transport."

Goliath One of Older British Battleships

The Goliath was one of the older British battleships of the pre-dreadnought type. She was built in 1899. Her complement was 750 men. The Goliath was four hundred feet long on the water line and 74 feet beam. Her displacement was 12,950 tons. She was armed with four 12 inch and twelve 6 inch guns; twelve 12 pounders, six pounders and two machine guns. She had four torpedo tubes.

Third Ship Lost In Attack On Dardanelles.

The Goliath is the third British battleship whose loss in the attack on the Dardanelles has been announced by the British government. The loss of the Irresistible and Ocean, together with the French battleship Bouvet was announced on March 19. All three ships struck mines during a general assault on the Dardanelles forts on March 18.

On April 5 a wireless despatch from Berlin said information had been received there that the British battleship Lord Nelson had stranded inside the straits and had been destroyed by the fire of Turkish guns. This report was not confirmed by the British admiralty.

Columbus, May 13.—Continuation of the legislative session into next week became a possibility in the minds of many legislators today when the assembly convened for what leaders a week ago said would be the last period of the session. Regardless of the McDermott liquor license decentralizing bill, which was up for reading in the house today, it was said by many that both the senate and house had too much business before them to take the final recess by Saturday night.

MAY HOLD OVER WEEK

Senate leaders said today the McDermott bill would not be reconsidered in that body, although liberal interests sought a reconsideration. Governor Willis held a conference with leaders today and afterward it was announced at the governor's office that all features of the bill had been agreed on.

CLOUDS GONE, SAYS WILLIS

Columbus, May 13.—Governor Willis addressing about 200 business men of Cincinnati who had come to Columbus to urge passage of the Bumer Rapid Transit bill for that city said: "Some of the legislative clouds which hung over the legislature ten days ago had been removed, and I see no reason why the bill should not now be passed."

If I was asked what's the most numerical profession in the U. S. today, I'd probably say it was international lawyers. I've talked to at least a dozen of 'em in the last two days. I've been asked so full of the various phases of international law during that time that it's oozin' out all over. I tell you it's a sight to see different conclusions that may be reached upon the same point. I'd give a heap o' money to some fellow who really knew he was right. Here's the weather: Ohio—Unsettled tonight; probably showers. Friday generally fair. Kentucky—Fair tonight and Friday. West Virginia—Partly cloudy tonight and Friday.

ASSEMBLY EXPRESSES FAITH IN PRESIDENT

Columbus, May 13.—Confidence in the action of President Wilson during the present European crisis is expressed in a joint resolution prepared for introduction in the house today by Representative Heselton of Cuyahoga. The text is as follows:

"Whereas, strained relations between the United States and Germany exist on account of the sinking of the Lusitania, and

"Whereas, such relations may become more strained on account of the inflammable nature of public sentiment, and

"Whereas, it devolves upon one man, the president of the United States, to exercise such calmness and judgment in his diplomatic adjustment of the affair as will reflect the sober judgment of the entire citizenry of this country, and

"Whereas, in a grave crisis like the present all party lines are eradicated, and

"Whereas, all former acts of President Wilson in the adjustment of foreign affairs have inspired the citizenship of the United States with a feeling of confidence in his judgment and honesty and purpose.

"Therefore, be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, that we extend to Woodrow Wilson our confidence and we bespeak for him the confidence of the citizenship of Ohio, that whatever action he may take in the present crisis will be inspired by lofty motives, pure patriotism and sober judgment and will uphold the dignity and integrity of the nation."

Pete's Smile Missed

One cannot help but comment on the fact that a strange face is missing at Millbrook. It is the smiling genial countenance of Pete Childs, the manager, who delivered the goods in a basketball game as he brought coveted pennants to the River City. Pete's cheery word, friendly smile and alertness are missing. But the deeds he performed in a basketball way for Portsmouth will linger long in the memories of local fans. They love Pete Childs for what he has done. Time works many changes and the situation at Millbrook proves the assertion as while Childs has come and gone, he has pushed in on his basketball knowledge a younger manager imbued with but one desire, to win a pennant has taken his place.

The Movies

Marguerite Clark, Adorable Stage and Screen Favorite At the Lyric Tomorrow.

Marguerite Clark, the dainty, diminutive, magnetic star of "Wildflower," "The Crucible," and "The Green Girl," attains another superb screen triumph in the latest Famous Players production, of Grace Livingston Furness' charming comedy-drama, "Orelia Green," the attraction at the Lyric tomorrow.

To find herself married to the man whom she actually believes she detests is the unusual position Miss Clark finds herself in at the climactic period of her portrayal of the famed character of Dolly Erskine, heiress of a vast fortune, bells of Harrowgate, and coquette, in the film version of this noted romantic comedy, of Scotland in the early nineteenth century.

Miss Clark's winsome personality, her piquant beauty and elfin grace assist her in making the tantalizing and bewitching role of Dolly Erskine an ideal character creation.

"Gretina Green" is named after the famed locality in the northern part of Scotland, where during the nineteenth century romantic couples whose marriages were opposed by stony-hearted parents could come and wed without the requirements of parental consent. And, according to the custom of this arcaid country, it did not make a particle of difference who performed the ceremony. Once within the lines of Gretina, the spoken word was enough to bind the eloping couple. And it is thus that Dolly, after warning the ineffectual Earl of Bassett that she would never marry him, finds herself in a compromising position and in order to save the honor of her married sister, who was eloping with another man, tells all that the supposed ruling-master (the disguised Earl) is her husband. This unusual remark is enough to bind her to the Earl in reality, according to the law of the period. How she finally learns of the Earl's true identity and is convinced that she really loves the man she tried to hate is developed in a highly pleasing and amusing manner.

The subject is replete with romance, fun, drama that more than once throughout the production is intensely gripping, and the sentiment and sunshine that Miss Clark so generously circulates.

The first show will start at one o'clock tomorrow—a half hour earlier than usual. The admission will be 10 cents to everybody in the afternoon and at night, 10 cents for children and 20 cents for adults.

At The Exhibit
"The Sheriff's Streak of Yellow" is a two reel feature that is being offered as the headliner at the Exhibit today. Another good picture that is included in the bill is a Keystone comedy entitled, "Hogan Out West." This peppery little comedy is chock full of exciting moments.

Friday Reflux musical motion pictures will again be one of the leading attractions at this theater. "California and You" will be one of the songs produced, while the other one will be "My Gal Irene." The latter picture is an irresistibly funny interpretation of the celebrated acclamation song. James Reilly, one of the prominent Broadway light opera stars, is featured in the California song.

"A Day That Is Gone" is a two-reel feature that heads Friday's program, while the comedy of the bill is furnished in "A Costly Exchange." There is always good music at the Exhibit and the admission is always five cents.

The Columbia Tonight, "The Blessed Miracle" and Keystone Comedy
"The Blessed Miracle," a special Lubin picture in three reels at the Columbia tonight, is easily one of the very best of all the three reel pictures to date. It is a most interesting story, featuring Ethel Clayton and Joseph Kaufman, supported by an all star company of the pick of Lubin actors.

In addition to this great three reel picture, Manager Tynes announces the first of a series of Keystone comedies that he has booked at the Columbia and will show at least one each week. The one tonight is "The Riot," a single reel comedy picture with a laugh in every foot of film.

Everybody knows that Keystone comedies are the cream of all comedy pictures, so if you enjoy a good hearty laugh, you can't afford to miss tonight's program at the Columbia.

Tomorrow's program consists of a special two reel Essanay picture entitled "The Turn of the Wheel," featuring Richard C. Travers and Edna Mayo, and a single reel comedy from the famous Haml comedy series, entitled "Lottie Coon's Ghost."

Remember today and tomorrow at the Columbia, as you will find an exceptionally good program at this popular theatre each of these days.

"STAR—The Pocket-Pal of All Good Fellows"

Men Who Chew Are Men Who DO

NO men more fully enjoy the jolly companionship of good chewing tobacco than the foresters who conserve America's standing timber.

These big, brave, branny men, as ready to fight a forest fire to a stand-still as they are to take a twenty mile "hike" in the dead of night, are STAR pluggers as well as STAR chewers.

They find STAR mighty pleasant company when they're alone—and when they meet a traveler they're glad to pass their plug to him. They know that STAR is good for one and better for two.

Each STAR plug is thick with a thickness of long lasting, mellow chewing leaf that just suits to a "T" the taste of Americans. Each STAR plug weighs a full 16 ounce pound, every time. Each plug is made clean and kept so; a STAR plug won't dry out like a thin plug—and the taste lasts. It will just take you but a few seconds to cut off a chew of STAR and get it into your mouth—to understand why STAR is the leading brand of the world.

From McDermott To Bowling Green, Ky., In An Automobile

Starting at noon on Monday, April 26th, from McDermott, O., going by way of the Portsmouth and Galena turnpike, passing through many pretty little towns, we made our first stop at Wamsleyville, Ohio, a beautiful little village nestled among the hills, to make inquiries as to the route we should take to West Union, Ohio. Having received such information we resumed our trip along lovely roads bordered by beautiful flowers and blooming trees, chief of which was the dogwood, whose snowy blossoms bedecked the green hills for miles along our way.

All nature seemed in harmony with our buoyant spirits as we sped along. With the engine of the grand old "Marion" working perfectly, we whirled along at a rapid rate until we presently found ourselves far beyond the borders of our own county and at the county seat of Adams county, the region famed on account of researches made by Judge A. Z. Blair. Stopping for refreshments we rested awhile and resumed our drive through a rather rough country, though very pretty and picturesque, and always finding good roads.

We reached Aberdeen, O., at a time when the farmers were returning from their ploughing. Here our minds drifted to the writings of "Bobbie" Burns. At Aberdeen we crossed the Ohio river and reached Mayville on the Kentucky side.

We were informed that the steepest hill in Kentucky was just out of Mayville. Knowing the wonderful hill climbing qualities possessed by the "Marion," we fearlessly pursued our journey and passed over the beautiful macadam road without having met with any considerable hill on the way.

Going along this pipe for about eight miles we came to the city of Washington.

Looking about for the President's mansion and the capitol building, we suddenly remembered this was Washington, Ky. Passing on we stopped for supper at Mursic, a very pretty little town, but having no garage, so we decided to go to Millersburg, where we were informed could be found a splendid garage. After partaking of a lovely supper at the "Durnall House" we enjoyed a moonlight ride of about twenty-five miles, a portion of which drive was through a cedar forest. The rays of the silvery moon fell here and there along our road, making a scene truly beautiful.

We passed the famous Blue Lick Springs, though they are not as famous now as in former times.

We reached Millersburg at 9:20 p. m. At this town is located a private military school. One of the young men from the school kindly directed us to the garage and the hotel building there. Here we spent the night, having traveled one hundred and three miles, as shown by the speedometer.

Having arisen early and after partaking of a splendid breakfast we continued our drive, arriving in Paris about 10 a. m. No great works of art greeted our gaze. No disturbances were rife in the city, as one would suppose, but then this was Paris, Ky.

Passing on to Frankfort, we visited the capitol building, also the governor's mansion, which is built from the beautiful white limestone from the Bowling Green quarries. Governor McCreary is serving his second term as the chief magistrate of the state of Kentucky, having been elected the first time about twenty-five years ago. He is quite an aged man now.

We next reached Louisville, a very beautiful and wealthy city. Some time was spent here taking in the pretty sights. The "Seelbach" Hotel is one of the finest hotels in the country.

The country adjacent to the city is one of great resources and lovely homes and fine farms are to be seen for miles around. Beautiful macadam roads extend in every direction.

After leaving Louisville we continued our travel to Bardonia, where we spent Tuesday night, stopping at the "Talbot House."

At this place is to be found the oldest Catholic church in the country.

Early Wednesday morning we drove out of Bardonia, reaching New Haven and Athertonville about 10 a. m. These, indeed, were manufacturing towns, but not of the New England states, for here we were pained to learn was to be found a great distilling plant, the output each day being truly vast.

In the country between Bardonia and Buffalo are to be found roads winding in and out, sometimes you are ascending, soon descending, tortuous as a snail's shell, but always beautiful and picturesque.

After passing Athertonville we came to Buffalo. One and one-half miles from Buffalo, it is to be found the "Lincoln Farm." It is a truly beautiful farm, maintained by the government.

While waiting for dinner we drove out to the farm and had the pleasure of entering the log cabin in which our great Lincoln was born, also drank from a spring fed by an underground stream. The cabin is protected by being enclosed within the walls of a mansion built out of marble from the Georgia quarries.

This stands upon the exact spot where our martyred president was born. Upon the walls of this enclosure are to be found noted inscriptions, one of which we copied. Of Lincoln, Edwin Markham has written:

"The color of the ground was in him, the red earth.

The small and smoky of elemental things.

The rectitude and patience of the cliff.

The good-will of the rain that loves the leaves.

The friendly welcome of the way-side well.

The courage of the bird that dares the sea.

The gladness of the wind that shakes the corn.

The mercy of the snow that hides all scars.

The serenity of the streams that make their way.

Beneath the mountain to the rifted rock.

The underlying justice of the light that gives as freely to the shrinking flower.

As to the great oak flaring to the wind.

To the grave's low hill, as to the Mother.

That shoulders out the sky."

Returning to Buffalo we partook of a beautiful dinner, such a dinner as our mothers used to prepare in our childhood days.

After a short rest we continued our trip, again finding the tortuous highway winding in and out, but beautiful as ever with the beautiful flowers and singing birds to cheer us along our way.

Just before reaching the Green river we noticed a beautiful waterfall. The stream was an underground one and had suddenly come forth from the earth and the wonderful fall of water at once won our admiration.

At the falls were located a large lumber mill and grist mill.

Before crossing the Green river we were compelled to pay forty cents toll, a thing unusual in this age of improved highways.

After crossing the river our way led through beautiful country. We sped along, passing through pretty little towns, where on every hand we manifested the great interest and enthusiasm the people were taking in their efforts to have the "Dixie Highway" pass through their territory. This great highway will connect the East with the West.

We soon found ourselves at Cave City. Ten miles to the right of Cave City is to be found a marvelous example of Nature's handiwork. The wonderful place, this modern Eden, is "Mammoth Cave," and it is truly marvelous.

It is wonderful, marvelous, even the use of superlatives gives only a faint idea of its grandeur and its beauty. Silicates and stalagmites—words so hard to remember when first learned in geographies—take on the form of fluted columns of fantastic and dramatic, of coiling decorations that would be the despair of a stucco worker. There are great auditoriums with lofty ceilings—one where the formations resemble a starlight sky—domes hundreds of feet high, the sides formed of tier after tier of fluted columns, balanced, and hanging rocks; huge piles of rock that seemingly have been swirled round by underground waters until they have worn great caverns, mighty crevices or clefts as if made by earthquakes, barren underground streams and a river, the "echo" fifteen to forty feet wide, on which a good-sized flatboat transports tourists for a distance of half a mile so that they may also enjoy the wonderful echoes.

Here the slightest noise is intensified a thousand times and certain tones sounded by the guides resemble the deep, rich notes of a pipe organ.

Leaving this wonderland we drove to Glasgow Junction, where we had supper and rested awhile.

About 6:30 p. m. we started for Bowling Green.

In order to avoid about nine miles of cobblestone road we took a dirt road to the left.

This road led us through a beautifully wooded portion of country, where again the beauties of nature were manifest in abundance.

Along this road we drove until we came to the Barren river. We crossed by means of an old-time ferry-boat and found that we were in the city of Bowling Green, our new home.

Our trip was like one great triumphal progress. The weather was ideal, the roads lovely and on all sides nature sent forth her charms and beauties and the entire distance of three hundred miles was driven without one single adjustment of our ears. "The Marion" no puns, no blarney to mar our pleasures. Gasoline and oil were the two requirements.

During our travel we met with tourists from California, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Tennessee and Indiana, all apparently enjoying the pleasures as much as ourselves.

In Bowling Green we met our brother, who had been superintending the work of the quarries recently opened by the Miller Bros. company in the white limestone region at Bowling Green. The great progress made, attests what industry and perseverance can accomplish. The beautiful white blocks of stone of this region challenge the admiration of the most critical eye.

We are enjoying the generous hospitality for which the Southern people are noted and we feel very much at home.

Here's hoping for the great success and happiness of our Ohio friends.

Sincerely,

MR. and MRS. C. F. WALLER.

MR. HURTH WINS IN DAMAGE SUIT

Less than an hour was required in common pleas court this afternoon for the necessary majority of the jury to arrive at a verdict in favor of the defendant in the $5,000 damage case of Mrs. Gertrude Luther against Adolph I. Hurth.

The vote stood 10 to 2 in favor of Hurth, the concurrence of nine jurors being required for a verdict.

Evidence in the case was submitted Wednesday afternoon, while the arguments of the attorneys consumed the whole of Thursday morning. The jury retired shortly after the noon hour, and reported about 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Luther sought $5,000 damages from Mr. Hurth for alleged sale of intoxicating liquor to her husband and last July after she had served notice on him not to sell her husband.

A lively wordy tilt between the opposing counsel enlivened the proceedings near the close of the Wednesday afternoon session. Judge A. Z. Blair intimated that Joseph Steagall had been retained by the attorneys for the defense to collect evidence in the suit, which caused both Attorneys Arthur H. Bannan and William J. Meyer to resent the imputation in no uncertain terms.

Judge Blair also sought to have Steagall removed from the inside railing. Judge Thomas brought an end to hostilities by insisting that the attorneys proceed with the trial of the case.

Mr. Hurth was 40 years old today and is rejoicing over the successful end of the suit and also over his anniversary.

DR. M'CANN DENIES CHARGES IN SUIT

Attorney Mark Crawford, representing Dr. T. H. McCann, of Waverly, defendant in a $5,000 slander suit filed some time ago by William Seitz of this county, filed an answer to the plaintiff's petition in common pleas court this afternoon, in which he denies every allegation of the plaintiff's petition.

He also recites the details of the transaction which led up to the trouble between himself and Seitz. He claims he sold Seitz four lots in Harrisonville in November, 1909, part of the payment of which was secured, he says, by two promissory notes. The notes, it is claimed, were also secured by mortgages on the lots, which were afterward foreclosed the plaintiff says.

He further alleges that Seitz trespassed on the lots after they had passed from his possession, which led to an argument between them during the course of which the alleged slanderous statements were made. All of the neighbors in that section were aware of what the argument was about, the answer adds.

Being Held On A Forgery Charge

Local police authorities are holding a man giving the name of D. E. Knaptrick, who says his home is in Winchester, Ky., on a charge of forgery.

It being alleged that he passed a worthless check for $93 at a local furniture store on Wednesday afternoon. The check was given in payment for some purchases, the balance being paid over to the customer in cash.

Police received a description of the alleged forger, and the man under arrest was apprehended at a local motion picture theatre this afternoon about three o'clock, by Officer Joseph Beaumont. According to the police, he admitted his guilt and expressed a desire to reimburse the firm for the entire amount. He was lodged in jail, however, to await a hearing before the mayor.

It is also claimed that the prisoner passed a worthless check upon a local saloonist during the month of April.

London, May 13.—London was cheered today by the publication of a dispatch from Athens recording a decided advance of the British and French troops along the Gallipoli Peninsula. Some reports even claimed the occupation of certain heights which would mean that the entire Peninsula was under the control of the invaders.

At two points on the western line of operations offensive movements are under way. The first, initiated by the Germans, is against the British, French and Belgian forces near Ypres, while the second is the pushing of French troops against the Germans to the North of Arras. For the moment, however, both of these attacks would appear to have been checked.

On the Bukovina frontier Petrograd reports a brilliant success won by the Russian cossack cavalry over the Austrian infantry. The Russian horsemen, forcing their way through a series of barbed wire entanglements dislodged the Austrians from three lines of trenches and captured 2,000 prisoners, a battery of quick firing guns, several searchlights and a whole string of caissons.

Russia admits that the Austro-German offensive is still proceeding in western Galicia while Vienna claims that the Russian retreat is fast becoming a rout with the invaders suffering enormous losses.

WE'VE HEARD OF IT.

Much attention is being given to the statement of a French general as to what the Allies are going to do with Germany and Austria, when peace is made. Belgium is to be restored and enlarged with a principality or two, Alsace and Lorraine are to be turned back to France, German-Poland, Galicia and a huge hunk of the eastern section of both Germany and Austria are to be carved off and used in forming the new kingdom of Poland, Austria is to lose Hungary, Bukowina, Trieste and other provinces and Constantinople is to go to Russia, but the climax will come with the depositions of the Hohenzollerns and the erection of Germany into a republic.

All most wonderful, indeed, but as we have often heard it said, it is always best to catch your rabbit before you proceed to cook it.

PROFITING BY OTHERS' EXPERIENCE.

(Hiawatha (Kan.) World.)

A girl in Hiawatha had a proposal of marriage Sunday night, and asked a week to consider it before giving her answer. She then organized herself into an investigating committee and commenced taking testimony from the married ladies of her acquaintance.

The first one she visited used to be a belle and the most admired girl in the town before she was married six years ago. The cross-examination brought out the fact that she had three children, did all her own work, including her washing and ironing and hadn't been down town for four weeks, and that her husband had given her but $2 since she was married, and that he had borrowed and forgot to pay back $10 which her brother once gave her for a Christmas present. He bought him a new overcoat with the money, while she wore the same plush coat that she wore when he was courting her. Another woman whom she visited quit teaching school three years ago to marry "the handsomest and best-dressed man in town" and she is now supporting him. A third didn't dare say her soul was her own when her husband was around, though she used to write some lovely essays when she was at school on the "emancipation of women", and the fourth woman she visited was divorced.

After visiting them and summing up the evidence, she went home and wrote to the young man. She will be married next month.

POPULAR AIRS.

(From the Christian Science Monitor.)

Certain airs possess a quality so infectious as to find a response in the heart of mankind. It is almost impossible to say what the quality is. The man in the street, rather than the musician, makes it his own. It runs like wild fire through a nation for a month or a year. It is reproduced by every barrel organ in the country. You cannot walk down a street without hearing it, or open a window without it floating in. The ordinary mortal cannot say whether it is good or bad, for it may be the "Marsellaise" or it may be "Ta-ra-ra Boom-de-ay". It is simply there and cannot be got rid of. Years afterwards it may be a classic or it may be a weariness to the flesh. "It's a long way to Tipperary" is one of these, and another is the "Swanee River", which is beginning to be heard floating down the English roads as the dusty columns converge on Salisbury Plain. In a month or two more it will be heard in the trenches in Flanders, for it has the quality which is sure to endure it to "Tommy Atkins", the quality inherent in "Tipperary", and expressed in the line "Dere's where de old folks stay." The "Swanee River" came to stay long ago. Take the "Marsellaise" it has become a classic. What will be the fate of "Tipperary"? Probably it will join the army of marching songs, which is known historically rather than musically.

At the risk of seeming unchivalric, we express the hope that Miss Barbara Rutherford, who is temporarily allied to the Vanderbilts by marriage and who gets herself in the papers of two continents, because she performed the heroinesque feat of advising her mother to run to the cellar, when a Zeppelin flew over their Paris home, doesn't look anything like her picture. If she does she has enough to make her a heroine and then some. Judging from her picture and drawing upon the language of the obituary editor, we see her suffering from a complication of diseases, including yellow jaundice, eczema, brash, measles and smallpox.

Pittsburgh it was that started rumors of the assassination of a lot of prominent men. From what we know of the town it is dirty enough to start anything foul.

THE BETTER PICTURE.

BUILD A HOUSE.

The unusual number of wild birds in and about the city this spring, has been frequently remarked. A cordial invitation should be extended them to abide with us and increase. This can be done to material effect in two ways, by building houses for them and providing food and water. At this time of the year in fact, all through the warm weather food is not so necessary as water, because worm and insect are prolific enough to the foraging, but water, away from the rivers and creeks, is scarce and explains why more birds are to be found in the bottom than along the hillside, though the latter is the more natural home for them.

No, sir, you can't stop 'em. The latest is a National Mouth Hygienic Association. Its particular purpose is to invade and poster the public schools and incidentally, and the incidental is the chief thing, to make a job of teeth inspector for some small politician, who can't earn a decent livelihood of his own effort.

Just a moment ago we heard a bunch of citizens earnestly discussing where the N. & W. was going to locate that new passenger depot. And yet this year we are not even cheered with the announcement that the N. & W. is going to build that new station—next year.

There is one ill of the future of which we are duly forewarned. That bad old Indian, Vie Huerta, has announced his purpose of becoming a naturalized citizen of these United States. He shows his incapacity, however, by declaring that base ball is tiresome and foolish.

Just to put yourself in his place in trying to imagine how mad Johnny Bull gets when a submarine slips into one of his harbors and blows up a ship, how would we feel if somebody should torpedo the battle ship Bonne as she peacefully swung at anchor in the local harbor?

A month has gone by since our good young Governor issued an urgent invitation to a lot of Democrats to vacate their jobs, and the invitation was gently, but firmly declined. And the pesky Democrats are still on the job.

May be the reason Scioto county's representative is ducking votes on so many bills is because all his time and energy are being consumed in the patriotic task of gerrymandering the congressional districts.

Genius will burst all bounds. That literary gem that his honor of the Peerless produced as a Mother's day proclamation, has been faked in whole and altogether by the mayor of Ironton.

Gentle spring is certainly more than coy in her advances, this year.

Pushing Work

The Mount Vernon Bridge company is pushing work on the super-structure of the new county bridge, which is to span the Scioto river, with all possible haste to make up for the delay suffered the past few weeks. The first two girders connecting the Portsmouth end and abutment and the first pier were installed Wednesday in less than three hours' time.

Having auspiciously opened the base ball season by administering that promised beating to Chillicothe we will now sit back and wait until it comes the turn of Ironton to provide a little amusement for our diamond champions. Strange how those two towns, Chillicothe and Ironton, just fit into our scheme of blissfulness in a base ball sense.

Hooray! We not only got a bid to the big feed Saturday night when Governor Willis and Senator Harding are to be given the glad hand, but we also have been promised a seat at the "first table" by General John Hall, the man in charge of the tickets. What more could mortal want to complete his happiness?

The attention of Admiral Brennan, of the good ship Bonne, is respectfully called to the fact that Carranza, one of the numerous Mexican presidents, has sent an agent to this country with enough money to buy a few ships and start a navy.

When we read on the same page of the sinking of the Lusitania and a trawler we conclude no game is too large nor too small for the German submarine.

New York, May 13.—A new shop adjacent to Broadway on Thirtieth street is now offering first aid to bachelors. It is called the Mending Shop and until it was opened by two girls just out of high school there wasn't any place in all New York where a mere man could run and have a stray button replaced on his coat or a hole in the toe of his sock plugged.

The shop has the unqualified support of every man who has tried to maintain close relationship between his trousers and a pair of suspenders by means of safety pins and bits of cord. When a man enters he is met by a matronly woman who says: "Now, just what is the trouble?" Shame-facedly the man points to where once a regular button clung to his coat in dim, distant days.

Then one of the shop workers—seven young girls are employed—is called and she sews on the button. The charge is 5 cents.

William Farnum, the well known middle weight, with his beautifully curled hair and looking every inch like one of the Brummell boys, put on his combination gladiatorial and placemaking suit the other day and earned a full day's pay.

For some time Farnum has simply been known as an actor with a $100,000 policy on his life. Now he is called the William Fox pure white hope. He leads his presence to Fox at usurious rates as main hammer for the films. In a picture called "The Plunderer" Farnum enacts the role of Bill Matthews. The scene is in a mining town called Goldpan, where Lily Meredith conducts a neat tango parlor.

Farnum becomes the pure white hope in the parlor. A strike is on in the mine. Trouble. Bells Parks is shot. Who has done this deed and who will avenge his death? Why Bill Farnum takes on the entire local 368 of the Goldpan Miners' Union and licks them to a frazzle. After he walks over their prostrate bodies he finds that he has lost about ten inches of muscle and most of his combination gladiatorial suit but what are such things to a hero?

New York now has a Japanese telephone directory containing a complete alphabetical list of all the Japanese firms and homes which have telephones. The names are printed in both English and Japanese for our switchboard operators as yet do not understand the language of Nippon, although they can understand at times the residents of Brooklyn who say "hoi!" for "hurl!" "saw!" for "saw" and "heun" for "been."

The Jap directory reveals the fact that there is a Japanese hotel—The Kawasoya—in East Nineteenth street—as well as several Japanese tea rooms which have been overlooked in the recent dance craze.

Totally one of the most popular songs in New York just now has a Japanese lilt and crooning Japanese melody of love as its basis. It is called "I Want To Go To Tokio."

The Health Board inspectors have stirred up another mess. Not so long ago they ordered mufflers on the city roosters and fixed a curfew rule for cats. Now they are after the New York honey bee. They want to take measures to keep citizens from being stung.

It isn't generally known that there are upwards of a thousand bee-keepers. Some of our well known sky scrapers are roofed with apertures from the main shafts over to the elevator chuffs.

Thus it is that several millions of bee workers in the five boroughs start for business each morning, buzzing from flower to flower, from candy store to candy store. So long as they attend to their own business and do not interfere with the regular taxpayers all is well, but sometime ago business being bad in the horticulture sections some of the bees settled down to work in a candy store. It is a long established fact that candy girls cannot do their best work surrounded by bees.

Will Inspect Plant.

Simon Lubold has extended an invitation to city officials to inspect the new tile plant at Black Fork, O., of which he is president. Saturday has been fixed for the day of inspection.

Goes East

J. S. Stevens, prominent farmer of Mt. Joy, passed through Portsmouth Wednesday on his way to Pittsburgh on a business visit.

Sober and competent workmen with Bremer, the Palmer. 11f

Officer Arthur Ridings was off duty Wednesday night on account of a severe attack of colic.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush kidneys if bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Epsom Salts from any good pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Epsom Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney diseases.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more yawning, sniffling, mucous discharge, headache, dizziness—struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic ointment in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

A Creed

Faith in him who calls me friend,
Faith in what is sweet and clean;
Faith that just around the bend
All is peaceful and serene.
Faith that after care and strife
Come the happy days of rest.
Faith that everything in life
Really happens for the best.

This my faith and this my shield
'Gainst the arrows of distrust;
Much of justice is concealed
In what seems to be unjust.
Now what seems a dismal way
That alone I'm forced to tread
I may come to see some day
Is a glorious path instead.

Undisturbed by petty wrongs,
Undismayed by what is mean,
Though the false attracts the
Through the multitude's unclean.

Though at times I stand alone,
Though I'm oft misunderstood,
Faith I still would keep and own
In the decent and the good.
—Detroit Free Press.

What a Question

"I am deeply in love, and am engaged."
"Same girl?" —Browning's Magazine.

Up a Tree

Her—I was up a tree in more ways than one last night.
She—How more ways than one?

Her—My father came in while I was sitting on Jack's limbs.
She—My dear.
(We got ten bones from the Hershey people for adding that last.)—Purple Cow.

Such a Busy Woman

Mrs. Will Stoskopf has been very busy for the last four or five weeks. She has made four base ball suits, four dresses, and besides her own family she has two boarders. She has hatched a chicken with four legs and three wings. All legs were natural and the feet all had toes all turned the same way. (If the chicken had lived it would have been quite a curiosity. —Decorah (Iowa) Republican.

Its Just Naturally Natural

The Girl—Oh, I do love nature so!
The Farmer—Yes, miss; she's just as natural around here as any place I know of.—Philadelphia Ledger.

If We Only Knew

If I knew you and you knew me,
If both of us could clearly see,
And with an inner sight divine,
The meaning of your heart and mine.

I'm sure that we would differ less,
And clasp our hands in friendship;
Our thoughts would pleasantly agree,
If I knew you and you knew me.
—Waterman.

All "Made-Up"

He—When I proposed to her she asked for a little time to make up her mind.
Other He (jealous rival)—So she makes that up too?—Jester.

Foolish Anyway

"What is your reason for wanting to learn to dance?"
"Well, it looks foolish to sit still and look foolish than it does to get on your feet and look foolish."—Washington Star.

Here's the Answer

"You certainly wear swell clothes, old man. How can you afford them?"
"By wearing swell clothes I'm able to make enough to be able to afford them."—Browning's Magazine.

The Editor Gets Snubbed

Don't blame the editor for not mentioning all the parties and social affairs that take place—consider the fact that some one must hand us the news in order for it to appear in the Review. Having always been ignored in the matter of invitations to these events the editor does not feel that he is under any obligations to seek details of social affairs of which his knowledge is but unconfirmed hearsay.—Alba (Mich.) Review.

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCKS
New York, May 13.—The stock market halted for the greater part of today's session uncertainty over international conditions begetting extreme caution.

Uncertainty was shown by the market in the early dealings, but declines predominated at the opening. Dealings were not extensive, but embraced more than the usual number of issues. War specialties were variable, Westinghouse Electric gaining nearly two points while others of that group were lower. Motors lost one to three points, and coppers denoted pressure. Standard railways fell from substantial fractions to a point, Baltimore and Ohio, Reading, Union Pacific and Lehigh Valley being heaviest.

Stocks weakened before the end of the first hour on vague rumors bearing upon the international situation. United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper, Reading and others of that class broke one to two points, while war specialties fell from three to six points.

Unlike previous days, however, the decline was not accompanied by any considerable amount of selling. In fact trading in the early session was far below that of recent days. Public interest was utterly lacking, brokers advising their clients to keep out of the market during the present period of unsettlement. Bands were heavy.

Trading became more apathetic later, the list drifting idly half way between the high and low level. The close was heavy.

Explains Trouble
John Fisher, who was fined $10 and costs in Mayor Elick's court, Thursday, on the charge of stealing a bicycle, gives the following explanation: He says he bought the wheel from Walter Morgan with the understanding that he would pay him $5 for it as soon as he (Fisher) sold his motorcycle. Fisher sold the bicycle in order to get the money to repair his motorcycle so he could sell it to pay Morgan. Morgan got tired of waiting for his $5 and had Fisher arrested. Fisher says he would have paid for the wheel as soon as he sold his motorcycle. The fine was remitted.

Officials On Special
A special hearing the high officials of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway reached South Portsmouth at 3:30 this afternoon. Included in the party were President George W. Stevens, General Manager E. W. Orice, Superintendent J. A. Fox, Vice-President M. J. Caples and W. R. Hudson, general superintendent. The party will spend tonight in Cincinnati. The special followed No. 3.

Turn Down Request Of Pump Company
The city board of control held a special meeting Thursday to consider a request of H. H. McGowan, of the John H. McGowan company, of Cincinnati, for some advance money on the final estimate of that firm's water works contract.

The board went on record as refusing to consider the proposal until it had received the approval of J. F. Witmer, of Buffalo, N. Y., the city's consulting engineer. It agreed to hold a special meeting for the purpose May 19 or any subsequent time Mr. Witmer might be able to be here. The board also insisted that the McGowan company should provide it with something definite as to its plans regarding the city pumping station or install other machinery and held that the installation of the surge tank for the purpose of eliminating the pounding of the pumps was not an extra or to be so considered but rather a part of the machinery to counteract the defects of the present system.

Mr. McGowan submitted to the stand taken and assured the board that his company meant to fulfill its contract in every respect.

Say Children Whipped Till Blood Soaked Their Clothes

Humane Officer Harry Ball was called upon Thursday noon to investigate reports that Tom Stevens, a huckster, of Red Row, Mill street, had cruelly beaten his son Robert, aged 9, and daughter, Anna, aged 14 years.

According to reports the children's clothes were soaked with blood after the father ceased his punishment with a willow switch.

Stevens admitted to the officer that he had punished the children more severely than he should have. He whipped the girl because she had insisted on wanting a glimpse of her little brother's back, which according to Officer Ball, contained numerous welts.

The case will be taken up with Probate Judge T. C. Beatty upon his return to the city.

Stevens was in the limelight some months ago over a story told to the police by his young wife, Bertha Stevens, that he was trying to get rid of her by shamming an infatuation for her sister in Greenup county and permitting her to see some love letters he had written to the sister. They recently became reconciled again.

STATEMENT ISSUED ABOUT PLUMBERS CONTROVERSY

Nothing new developed during the day between the master plumbers and journeymen plumbers, and the situation is unchanged from this morning. Members of the special committee appointed from the Central Labor Council to try to effect a settlement with the employers stated this afternoon that they had tried every way to bring about a meeting with a committee from the master plumbers for the purpose of arbitration, but that their efforts had so far been unsuccessful, the master plumbers refusing to treat with them in any manner.

Attorney Nicholas Klein, of Cincinnati, called here Wednesday to consult with the journeymen plumbers and to represent them in any conference, returned home early this morning after he had exhausted every effort to bring about a meeting. He is prepared to return by first train the moment he is sent for.

Harry Strong, business agent of the Building Trades Council, stated this afternoon that an injustice was being done the journeymen plumbers by circulation of reports of purported demands upon the master plumbers. He says they are insisting only on the fulfillment of the contract entered into last year.

Attorney Nicholas Klein, of Cincinnati, has given The Times the following statement concerning the plumbers' troubles, which covers all late developments:

Signed statement issued by Nicholas Klein, attorney for the Building Trades Council:

Portsmouth, O., May 12, 1915.

In an endeavor to avoid a general strike of the entire Building Trades of Portsmouth, our Union sent a letter to the Master Plumbers, asking for an arbitration committee, so as to arbitrate all differences and reach a peaceful agreement. This evening I had a conference with Judge Blair, attorney for the Master Plumbers' Association, and I asked him for an arbitration committee also, stating that the Union did not want to strike, and they believe that the matter could be settled in a peaceful, sensible manner. The Master Plumbers refuse to arbitrate and their attorney, Judge Blair, refuses to discuss the matter.

Thus the situation becomes critical, and it may be that the Union will have to take other steps. The Union had a contract with each Master Plumber, which contract expires the thirtieth day of April, 1917. The Master Plumbers, themselves, have broken this contract and have entered into an agreement, which I consider unlawful, to break their contracts and lock out all the men, which they have done.

Thus, organized labor is face to face with the desperate situation. In all probability, I shall prepare notices at once to be sent to each Master Plumber and if they persist in their unlawful combination I shall sue each one of them individually, for damages, for breach of contract, and will also sue the association as an unlawful conspiracy, and ask that it be dissolved by the court. We desire to avoid a strike which would cripple the city, because we believe in peace, just as President Wilson in crisis which he is handling in such a splendid manner. If anything does come, it will be forced upon us by the Master Plumbers' Association, as it seems they have no respect whatsoever for contracts no more than some of European nations have had for treaties. The Master Plumbers consider a contract a scrap of paper. Union men and journeymen are very anxious that there shall be no strike and the public can rest assured that we will do every honorable thing to avoid it. I have an excellent committee acting with me, composed of the following well known gentlemen: Harry Strong, business agent of the Building Trades Council; M. D. Cunningham, president of the Central Labor Council; Harry Saunders, president of the Journeymen Plumbers, and William Tilton, president of the Building Trades Council, and I rely upon them absolutely. I am leaving for my office at Cincinnati, but expect to keep in touch with the situation here.

NICHOLAS KLEIN.

NOTE IS RELEASED

without warning of the Lusitania with its loss of more than a thousand lives of non-combatants, among them more than 100 Americans.

Acts Said To Be Indefensible

2. These acts are declared to be indefensible under international law. The United States points out that it never admitted Germany's right to do them, and warned the Imperial government that it would be held to a "strict accountability" for attacks on American vessels or lives. A strict accounting, therefore is now asked from Germany.

3. The usual financial reparation will be sought, although Germany is in effect reminded that no reparation can restore the lives of those sacrificed in the sinking of the Lusitania and other ships.

Notice of Intention Unlawful

7. The giving of warnings to the American public without officially communicating them to the United States government is commented on in connection with the Germany embassy's printed advertisement before the sailing of the Lusitania, but irrespective of the failure to advise the American government of Germany's purpose the point is made that notice of an intention to do an unlawful act neither justified nor legalized it.

8. The suggestion is conveyed that the German government, of course, could not have intended to destroy innocent lives, and that consequently the German submarine commanders must have misunderstood their instructions. The American government indicates its hope that this will be found to be true and cessation of the unlawful practices thereby will result.

9. In conclusion Germany's attention is called to the earnestness of the government and people of the United States in this situation. It is made plain that the United States will leave nothing undone either in diplomatic representation or other action to obtain a compliance by Germany to the requests made.

Diplomatists Interested In Text

The text of the note was eagerly awaited by official Washington. The unofficial outlines published today increased the anxiety to learn the exact phraseology of the document. Diplomatists were especially interested in the text which they were prepared to cable to their governments as a matter of information as soon as copies could be obtained.

It is known positively that the United States has had no conversation either in Washington or in the foreign capitals with other governments concerning the note or the course that will be pursued should Germany refuse to comply.

Believe Germany Will Accede

In some quarters friendly to Germany, the impression prevailed that the Berlin government would accede to the American demands and state its expectation that the United States would endeavor to secure the unrestricted passage of food stuffs and conditional contraband consigned to the civilian population of Germany.

Although no mention is understood to be made as to the time when a reply is expected from the Imperial government, the belief here is that the German foreign office, realizing the state of feeling in the United States, will answer promptly.

Cash Indemnities Not Sufficient

Officials who have seen the note made it clear today that it makes no specific demand for financial reparation for the loss of American lives but asks reparation in general terms and avoiding any impression that the loss of Americans on the Lusitania could be atoned by the mere payment of cash indemnities.

Although nearly a week has passed since the sinking of the Lusitania, messages regarding the disaster continued to arrive at the White House today from all parts of the world. Practically all of them expressed confidence in the president.

TO INTERN GERMANS

The enthusiasm of the anti-Germans was evidenced Thursday afternoon at Tower Hill when 100 black coated stockbrokers, merchants and city men, supported by thousands of general public stood in a drizzling rain and wildly cheered speeches calling for the internment of Germans.

Resolution Fears Fires, Disease and Poisoned Water.

The following resolution was then adopted:

"Thousands of citizens of London gathered together at a mass meeting unanimously to protest against any kind and kin of German mutilators, poisoners and murderers of men, women and children being any longer allowed to be at large in the British Isles, and fearing riots, fires, the spread of disease germs and poison water here unanimously demand that the government take immediate steps to intern or deport all alien enemies, male or female, whatever their nationality, naturalized or otherwise."

Victim Of Heart Disease And Was Not A Suicide

Mrs. Mary Long, of McCannell avenue, returned home Thursday noon from Newrytown, O., where she attended the funeral of her aged brother-in-law, Peter Loda, who was found dead Sunday morning.

Mrs. Long says there was nothing to substantiate the first reports sent out from Newrytown that her relative had committed suicide. While Mr. Loda was found lying outstretched on the edge of a creek near his home, his head barely reached the water and an examination showed that he had not met death by drowning. Instead it is supposed he had succumbed to heart disease, to which he had been subject for some time. He was fully dressed, and it was ten o'clock in the morning when the discovery was made. He was temporarily deranged, it is supposed, and had been wandering about for almost an hour when he dropped dead.

The whereabouts of Paul Loda, the youngest son, who has not been heard from since he left Portsmouth five years ago, still remains a mystery.

Suit Brought To Get Subscription

Civil proceedings against all those who subscribed amounts to apply on the purchase of land donated to the Whitaker-Glessner company and who have refused to pay those subscriptions will be instituted by the Board of Trade if a test case filed in Squire Byron's court Wednesday afternoon is decided in its favor.

Attorneys Miller and Micklethwait have been retained by the directors of the Board of Trade to secure collection of the subscriptions, which range from $10 to $100 each. This firm on Wednesday afternoon filed suit in justice's court against one of the alleged subscribers to collect his subscription of $10, which it is claimed, he refuses to pay.

At the time the proposition was being furthered by the Board of Trade, postcards were addressed to local citizens on the reserve side of each of which was a blank space, in which was to be filled out the amount which the signer agreed to pay. It was upon the strength of those guarantees that the land was purchased and turned over to the steel company. The signed cards of the alleged delinquents will be introduced as evidence if the other cases are brought to trial.

RENIGGED ON THE TRIP

It is whispered about the Portsmouth Branch that two dashing young B. & O. S. W. operators up the line have not yet fully recovered from the shock given them by two of the diving nymphs now playing at the Sun. Two of the fair ones had promised to go motoring with the Johnnies Sunday, but instead of using their own fine big touring car, they made the mistake of hiring a smaller machine from a Ironton garage owner. When the girls prepared to go they caught a glimpse of this, and exclaiming, "Huh, they got a Ford!" renigged on the trip.

Return Of Alleged Forger Is Delayed

It may be several months before Günther Rodenhauer, alleged forger in jail at Sioux Falls, S. D., can be brought to this county to answer to the charge of forging his brother's name to checks cashed at a local bank early in March.

Local authorities have received definite word from the Sioux Falls authorities that Rodenhauer is wanted there to answer to a charge of raising checks, and he will be tried there within the next few weeks.

Governor Willis, on last Saturday, issued requisition papers on the governor of South Dakota for his return to this county and Sheriff Smith had intended to go after him early this week. If he is convicted in South Dakota, he can not be brought here until after he has served his sentence.

Rodenbauer, it is charged, came to Portsmouth early in March and drew out his brother's savings from a local bank by representing himself as the brother, who formerly worked for the N. & W. railroad company in this city. The brothers at that time resided in Richmond, Ind. Pinkerton detectives traced the alleged forger to Sioux Falls.

THIRSTY, BUT WOULD NOT PAY, AND SALOON KEEPER IS BROKE

Cincinnati, May 12.—Patrons of Arthur J. Jones, Ironton (Ohio) saloon-keeper, who filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition in the District court yesterday morning, seemed to have had an awful thirst, with a marked reluctance to paying for their thirst alleviators. Jones' statement shows that the names of 232 persons were on his "slate," many of them journeying to Ironton from dry counties for their "licker." In all, the 232 owe Jones $1,168.45. One man, of Ironton, according to Jones, owes $4 for "merchandise."

Jones' liabilities are $5,657.52 and assets $2,968.45. His stock is valued at $200; household goods, $100; unliquidated claims, $350, and property claimed to be exempted, $500.

Officers Elected

Directors of the Ice Cream and Bottling company elected officers for the coming year at a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the company's offices on Tenth street. All of the old officers were re-elected as follows: President, J. M. Stockham; vice president, N. A. Brokaw; secretary, J. Edson; treasurer, Russell Stockham. Those four officers, with Mrs. Rose Micklethwait compose the board of directors.

The directors reported a most successful and satisfactory business during the past year, with a continuance of the same policy for the future.

Baby of Future is Considered

Much thought has been given in late years to the subject of maternity. In this city there are maternity hospitals equipped with modern methods. But most women prefer their own homes and in the towns and villages most prefer them. And since this is true we know from the great many splendid letters written on the subject that our "Mother's Friend" is a great help to expectant mothers. They write of the wonderful relief, how it seemed to allow the muscles to expand without undue strain and what a splendid influence it was on the nervous system. Each brings as "Mother's Friend" and the broader knowledge of them should have a helpful influence upon babies of the future. Science says that an infant derives its sense and builds its character from cutaneous impressions. And a tranquil mother certainly will transmit a more healthy influence than if she is extremely nervous from undue pain. This is what a host of women believe who used "Mother's Friend."

These points are more thoroughly explained in a little book mailed free. "Mother's Friend" is sold in all drug stores. Write for book, Breckfield Publishing Co., 411 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

THAT IS, something is wrong with baby, but we can't tell just what it is. All mothers recognize the term by the lassitude, weakness, loss of appetite, inclination to sleep, heavy breathing, and lack of interest shown by baby. These are the symptoms of sickness. It may be fever, congestion, worms, croup, diphtheria, or scarlatina. Do not lose a minute. Give the child Castoria. It will start the digestive organs into operation, open the pores of the skin, carry off the foetid matter, and drive away the threatened sickness.

Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher

Miss Lena Thorne and Mr. Arthur P. Banfield were quietly married last evening, at eight o'clock, at the bride's home on Eleventh street. The ring ceremony was said by Rev. T. H. McAfee, pastor of the First Baptist church, where the bride and groom are both popular members. The attendants were Miss Myrtle Graham, an intimate friend of the bride, and Mr. Clyde Banfield, brother of the groom. After the ceremony the bride and groom went to the home of Mrs. Flora Banfield mother of the groom, where they will make their home. The wedding was to have been kept a secret for several days, but the wide-awake class of Mr. Van Gorder of the First Baptist Sunday school were given a tip of the wedding, and in a few minutes gathered at the scene of the nuptials to make things interesting, but the bride and groom had departed, so the party left, knowing they would make it interesting for the groom in the very near future. After the wedding light refreshments were served.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, weas, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 40. Residence A-449.

Bloomington, Ky.—Miss Dolly Wise.—Would be pleased for you to inform me in your paper the whereabouts of Capt. Sun Tag. He was my captain, also I desire to know the number of his regiment and company. I think it was Co. A, 141 Inf. Ohio. Would be glad to have the correct company and regiment and also his address if living, and if dead, please advise me where he died and where buried. I also desire to know the address of John Brock. He was one of my comrades. Please state number of regiment and company in the army.

JOSEPH HOPKINS.
Would be pleased to have some old soldier answer these questions. Can do so by letter or phone me on No. 60.

Dear Dolly.—Should girls go with boys who smoke cigarettes?

M. A.
A boy who smokes cigarettes in his teens almost invariably turns out to be weak and good for nothing. Of course, a girl is not building a very promising future by wasting her time with such boys.

Dear Miss Wise.—Is it ever proper for married women or widows to sign their Christian and married name, or should they always use their husband's name?

A READER.
Either the husband's name or the widow's baptismal name may be used on a widow's visiting card, but if, in the immediate family, the husband's name is duplicated, she should use her own name. In signing her name it is better for her to use her baptismal name, as Mary Brown Jones. A married woman should sign her social letters Mary Brown Jones. In signing a business letter she may sign her name Mrs. Mary Brown Jones, or, preferably, Mary Brown Jones and Mrs. John Jones, written beneath it in parenthesis. In signing legal documents a married woman must always sign her own name, as Mary Brown Jones.

friend and every once in a while I go to see him and while I am there he is sad. Will you please tell me what will cheer him?

WORRIED.
He is probably sore cause you come to see him. It is his place to call on you, so don't go to see him any more.

Dear Dolly.—I am planting a garden in our back yard and would like to know the proper time to plant beans?

AMATEUR GARDNER.
Your beans ought to be five or six inches high now. However, bush beans can be planted in May, June and July and even as late as August. Harvest begins in about 50 days. Plant three inches apart, rows two feet apart. One pint of seed for every fifty feet. Lima and pole beans should be planted in May and June. Harvest in about 80 days. Set poles three feet apart in rows three feet apart. One pint of seed for every fifty hills.

Dear Dolly.—I am a girl nearly fourteen. I like a boy very well, and to my face he seems nice, but other people say he talks about me. Lately he hardly ever speaks. Can you please tell me how I can find out if he likes me? I know I am young to like boys. What can I do when a boy whom I dislike talks about me?

A FRESH KID.
A girl who goes with the when she is fourteen injures her chances of being liked by a desirable class of boys when she is older. Your name has been cheapened already, and it will take great effort on your part to regain spotless reputation and be free from petty talk. Don't pay any attention to boys except as friends, ignore what they say about you and always conduct yourself so that no matter what they say your character will prove that it is not true. To try to find out whether the boy cares for you would only cheapen you further.

Dear Dolly.—I am a charming young widow and in love with a man past 50. He is very nice to me and could make me a splendid living, but I am undecided whether to marry him or not. People tell me when a man gets that age he marries for a house keeper and doesn't love one woman any better than another. Is that so?

MERRY WIDOW.
It is true that men of that age seldom fall romantically in love, but nevertheless the majority of them make good husbands. They use their reason instead of their heart in choosing a wife, with very satisfactory results as a rule.

Dear Miss Wise.—Do you know of anything that is good for mosquito bites?

ONE WHO WAS BIT.
The pain may be relieved by wetting the affected area with diluted ammonia, the ordinary household ammonia answering the purpose very well. But why the continued annual torment of mosquitoes? These pests do not fly far from their birth place which is some collection of stagnant water. It is more satisfactory to prevent the mosquitoes from breeding around the home than to be everlastingly fighting mosquitoes and doctoring their bites. Tin cans and other rubbish should be cleaned up, wet, damp places drained, rain barrels and cisterns covered, and pools covered with a film of kerosene. A very small quantity of kerosene is sufficient to kill the mosquitoes.

If the stenographer who had a question in this column Wednesday night asking how to improve her mind will send me her name and address or phone me, I shall be glad to tell her of a plan whereby she may be able to gain the desired knowledge at a very little expense.

SOAP IS BAD FOR THE HAIR
Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary multifused coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), is cleaner and gentler than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multifused coconut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

WOMAN GRABBED IN OWN YARD BY A NEGRO BRUTE

Mrs. Myrtle Joyce, wife of Charles W. Joyce, a street-car conductor, was the near victim of a negro fiend at their home, No. 2923 Gallia street, shortly after 8 o'clock Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Joyce had gone out into the back yard to get a bucket of water from the cistern, when a negro sprang from the darkness and seized her by the arm. Mrs. Joyce screamed and struggling desperately, managed to tear herself from the fellow's grasp. Mrs. Lettie Ratcliff, wife of Thomas Ratcliff, an N. & W. fireman, of Walnut street, who had come to spend the night with her, ran to her rescue. Mrs. Joyce falling into her arms in a dead faint. It was some time before she revived and recovered from the shock.

IT IS SERIOUS

Some Portsmouth People Fail to Realize the Seriousness of a Bad Back

The constant aching of a bad back. The weariness, the tired feeling. The pains and aches of kidney ills. May result seriously if neglected. Dangerous urinary troubles often follow.

A Portsmouth citizen shows you what to do.

Mrs. John Musser, 1206 Ninth street, Portsmouth, says: "About six months ago I was in a bad fix from kidney complaint. When I was washing, sharp pains darted through the small of my back. I tried so easily that I could hardly work. The kidney secretions passed too frequently at times and they again were scanty. I used several medicines with no relief. I finally began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and the first box gave me relief. By the time I had finished two boxes, I was cured. Price 50 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Musser had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y."

Senior Class Play At High School Tonight

Seniors who are to take part in the class play, "As You Like It," held a full dress rehearsal at the high school Wednesday evening. Miss Charlotte Bannon has every participant ready for their part tonight when the play will be presented to a capacity house. Full houses are assured for both nights as a canvass of tickets sold up until Monday showed 1400 had been disposed of. The scenery was set up Wednesday and the entire student body was given a glimpse of the gift made to them by the seniors.

The costumes for the play arrived from Cincinnati Wednesday. A feature of the play will be a May polo dance by shepherds and shepherdesses which is said to exceed anything of its kind ever presented in the city.

Paul Webb, Anna Tracy, Margaret Quinn, Ida Davis, Adelaide Blatte, Edith West, Earl Himes, Mildred Purdum, Elton Schmidt, Helen Rardin, Marion Prosch and Gladys Waller take part in the feature. Miss Margaret Quinn and Miss Adelaide Blatte take the parts of two boys. There were so many girls who were not needed in the cast that several were given boy's roles to enact. "As You Like It" is one of Shakespeare's comedies and always pleases. "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was very successfully produced by the 1914 class. The play will begin both nights at 8 o'clock sharp.

A trio composed of Misses Lillie Anderson, Alice Blake and Mrs. A. L. Wilhelm will furnish the music.

Heavy Fog

A heavy fog settled over the city and surrounding country about ten o'clock Wednesday evening, which did not lift for several hours. Automobile travel on the rural roads was extremely hazardous, while it was almost impossible to see from one light to another in the city. It was the first real fog of the season.

Mr. And Mrs. Isaac Quasser Fear For Loved Ones' Safety

It is with the greatest anxiety that Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Quasser and Goodman Rosengarten, of this city await word from their relatives, who are in Libau, one of the principal Russian ports on the Baltic captured by the Germans, Friday. The local people have relatives not only in Libau, but in Riga, another principal port, and other small towns in the vicinity. The Saturday reports that Libau had been captured did not carry any information about lives being lost, and relatives here are hoping for the best. Mrs. Quasser has a married sister and cousin in Libau. Mr. Quasser's mother, Mrs. Rachel Quasser, lives in Libau. He also has a married sister with whom his mother makes her home. Several cousins who live in and near Libau have not been heard of for several months.

Mrs. Quasser had a letter from his mother Tuesday, but the letter contained very little war news. She spoke of no close danger, and the capture of the town was a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Quasser, who think their relatives would certainly have known that Germans were in the vicinity. Several letters received in the past month contained word about the dropping of a small number of bombs, which did little or no damage. In speaking of a visit from the German aeroplane the relatives in the war zone would write "a high visit."

Mrs. Quasser has a brother, Dr. Grandin, who when the war first broke out moved from Libau to Petrograd.

Mr. Quasser had two married sisters in Lodz, whom he has not heard from since that place was captured by the Germans in November. He does not know whether they have perished.

Mr. and Mrs. Quasser live at 323 Third street. He came to this country six years ago this coming October. Mrs. Quasser will be here five years in June. Since then they have never visited their relatives.

The Russians started work on a $2,000,000 war harbor about two years ago at Libau, but after about a year work was suspended when it was discovered the harbor was not deep enough for the large war vessels. Libau and Riga have no protection and a very small number of soldiers were stationed at the two places.

Mr. Rosengarten, employed at the D. Taboli and Company place on Front street, who has only been in this country for sixteen months, has his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rosengarten, two brothers and one sister living in Libau. His eldest brother, H. Rosengarten, lives in Riga and is in charge of a large lumber export business. A branch of the business is carried on in Libau. G. Rosengarten was in Johannesburg, Cape Colony, Africa, for five years previous to his coming to the United States. He visited at home for four months before sailing for America, but while there heard nothing about a new approach of the Germans. The last letter he received from home folks was about two months ago, and like all other letters he received, contained no news of the war. Ward is not expected from the relatives in the war zone on account of the Germans being in possession of the town.

FEAST OF ASCENSION

The feast of the Ascension was observed in the Catholic churches Thursday morning. The parochial schools were dismissed on account of the holy day. Services will be held at St. Mary's church this evening in honor of the Blessed Virgin and will conclude with Benediction.

GIRL IN PERILOUS POSITION

Lovi Gibson, crossing watchman in the N. & W. and B. & O. tower at the Gallia street crossing was given the scare of his life Tuesday evening. "It made my hair stand on end," said Gibson. A little girl, about four years old, was crossing the tracks and her foot got caught in a "frog." Two other small girls who noticed a train approaching, ran, leaving the little tot behind to care for herself. Gibson who was lowering the gates was sure the train would strike her but she managed to pull her foot out before the train shot by.

Taxi Was Disabled

A taxi-cab belonging to the Independent Taxi Company sprung an axle at the foot of the hill leading to the temporary bridge at Scioto Point late Wednesday afternoon.

Paul Esselborn and a party of friends were returning from a trip to the West Side in the taxi. It was brought to a stop to give clear way to a scary horse and buggy descending the hill and it was in starting up again that the break occurred. Another taxi was sent to the rescue and towed the disabled car to the company's garage on Ninth street.

J. A. Leeth Is Elected

Judge Curtin, of Circleville, in Pike county common pleas court, Wednesday afternoon, ordered that a certificate of election be issued to J. Allen Leeth, who was found to have been elected county commissioner over Charles A. Stubbs at the last election. The recount of the ballots, ordered by the court, showed that Leeth had been elected by six votes. The official count last fall gave Stubbs a majority of ten, and a commission was sent to him from the governor's office.

THE FIRST THING A GOOD DOCTOR PRESCRIBES

A good physic and liver stimulant is usually the first remedy prescribed by the physician when called to a case of indigestion because he knows that most of our ills are directly or indirectly due to constipation, sluggish liver, etc.; therefore his first concern is to reach and remove the probable cause of the illness, and the system, relieved of this poisonous feces, again becomes normal.

And that is exactly the idea behind Santal Laxative Tablets, a remedy for constipation, indigestion, and liver troubles, every ingredient of which has been passed on and approved by an eminent chemist, which you or any of your family may take and which easily and painlessly, but thoroughly and effectively, will cleanse your system, stimulate your liver, thereby ridding your organs and your blood of many of the underlying causes of illness and trouble.

Santal Laxatives contain no calomel. They are mild yet very effective. Do not gripe nor irritate.

And you know Santal Laxatives will satisfy you. Santal Laxatives are sold at this place at a special price. Send for a box, take one tonight and make tomorrow bright. A physician's trial package free, if you mention this advertisement when you write. Santal Remedies Co., 505 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, O.

Chicago, May 13. A world's pitching record was claimed today for Urban Fieber of the Chicago Americans as result of his performance in defeating the Washington club 10 to 0 in the 7th inning.

According to baseball experts, Fieber pitched only 67 balls during the nine innings, five less than the record established by Christy Mathewson of the New York Giants in the same year.

Frank Seffell, who operates a electric score board in Washington telegraphed that the board recorded all strikes and balls and that Fieber recorded 50 strikes and 17 balls pitched 50 strikes and 17 balls was correct. In the record Seffell counted as strikes any ball that he hit by the batter. The third man in the fifth inning was a fast man and pitched 15 balls, each batter hitting the first ball for an out.

The baseball game between the two teams of the Gilbert Grocery Company, "The White Collars" and "The Greasy Gang," will be staged at Millbrook park Saturday at 2:30. Considerable rivalry has been stirred up between the two Portsmouth left on a six days' trip Thursday morning. After two will be played in Millisville the team will go to Ironton, where a four game series will be opened May 15.

The team will be home on May 11 when the Lexington College basketball team, May 19, 20, 21 and 22. The Ironton will come for a block of games, opening on Sunday May 23, 24, 25 and 26. Portsmouth goes to Charleston on May 27 and will have three games there, one being on Sunday May 29.

The newspapers around the circuit are certainly boosting the game this season.

Up in Charleston baseball extras were issued on the opening day and all the Senators were pictured. Ross Bixby wrote in the context of this article:

... sending his best sniffs.

In Ironton and Chillicothe great parades have been made for the winning games today. The Ironton Regis and Irontonites got out special bascule editions that were very interesting full of readable material.

"We are going to play when ever there is the slightest possible chance," said President Tablennan last night.

"This business of calling a game off when the rainfall has hardly dampened the infield will not be tolerated," said Bill Bell, manager of the Athletics.

Read This And See How You May Save The County Money

Next Monday, May 17, there will have been commenced the taking of the annual enumeration of unmarried youth of school age throughout the state of Ohio.

The most serious difficulty that the enumerators meet with in their efforts to secure a full and complete census return arises from the fact that a great many people labor under the impression that they are taking the names of "school children" and either through inadvertency or ignorance, and sometimes purposely, refrain from returning the names of those over 15 and 16 years of age.

A census of school children is necessary for the reason that school teachers keep full and accurate enrollments.

Within the next ten or twelve days every house, flat and tenement in the City of Portsmouth will be visited by the census takers.

In order that the householders and heads of families may be fully advised of the object of this visit, we make the following explanation of the purpose of the enumeration.

It has nothing to do with the compulsory education law. It is not an enumeration of those who "go to school."

It is a census of all persons of school age, that means all between the ages of six and twenty-one, in other words of all those who have right to the benefits of the common schools and the right to participate in the distribution of the State School Fund.

The only purpose is to secure an accurate count in order to effect a fair pro rata division of the State School Fund among the various school districts throughout the state.

When the State of Ohio was created and its constitution written there was imbedded in the organic law provision for a perpetual and never failing school fund. This is known as "The Irredeemable Debt of Ohio." So that no matter how poverty stricken any local school district may become or floods or famine may come into any community there could be no failure of tuition. And, at the same time, the rich and prosperous communities are obliged to share their wealth with the poor and impoverished districts.

When the public lands were surveyed off and opened to entry every section 16 in each township was set apart for the support of the common schools. Where such lands were not sectionalized similar tracts were set apart in lieu thereof. These lands were from time to time sold or leased and the funds arising turned into the State School Fund. There also flows into this reservoir many mills from other springs such as excise taxes, such as the dog tax, cigarette taxes, etc.

This great volume of money is distributed annually to each and all of the school districts, pro rata on the basis of the enumeration we are now taking in pursuance of section 1734 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio.

This distribution amounts to about two dollars per head so that if a full, fair and accurate count be had this City School Treasury will be enriched about Fifteen Thousand Dollars.

It is to the interest of every citizen and taxpayer to render to the enumerators careful and courteous assistance so that Portsmouth may obtain her full share. Remember that every name withheld or hidden means a loss to the city and to the taxpayers of Two Dollars. The loss of only a dozen or so in each precinct would cost us one thousand dollars.

The enumerators are sworn officers of the state and should be respected accordingly.

Thinking the newspapers for their courtesies in the use of space for this explanation and heads of families for their kind and courteous information that will be extended, I remain,

Very respectfully,
J. W. MITCHELL,
Supervisor.

Dr. Henry Gave Talk

Wife Went To Street Fair; Husband Broke The Dishes

Claiming that his wife had taken advantage of a pact they had entered into Charles Spriggs, a laborer, beat her up at their home on Elm street Thursday noon.

Spriggs also broke up all of the dishes and furniture of the household, the home looking like a cyclone had struck it by the time police reached the scene. Spriggs was found hiding in an outbuilding at the rear end of the lot.

Spriggs appeared to be under the influence of liquor. He said he and wife had decided to pay one visit each to the street fair, they take turns in caring for the baby. Wednesday evening was the time picked by her and he selected Saturday night. He claimed to have learned from a reliable source that she had walked around with other men and this started the rumpus. He was locked up at the city prison.

Making Protest

Residents of Mabert Road are protesting against the proposed establishment of the tuberculosis summer camp in their vicinity. The site chosen, they declare, is in close proximity to a dairy farm containing forty cows. They threaten to circulate a petition against having the camp in their midst.

Another good sized crowd attended the Moose carnival on the West End mill lot Wednesday night.

The plantation show will be added to the list of attractions to night. The women contestants in the free trip to California contest have been dropped for lack of interest and the fight thus is narrowed down to Jos. Krall and Charles Kieglor and the one declared the most popular Moose will win the coveted trip.

Auto Skidded And Crashed Into Tree

The five passenger car of Ernest Eversly, containing Eversly and a gentleman friend, and two young women, came near figuring in a serious accident at Front and Chillicothe streets Wednesday night, about ten o'clock. Eversly came east on Front street at a fair rate of speed, but too fast to make the turn through the flood wall opening onto Chillicothe street. The street was wet from the rain and the machine skidded clear to the east side of Chillicothe street, jumped the curb and crashed into a tree in front of the Times office. The impact of the machine hitting the tree and two blow-outs was heard for half a square, and a number of residents of Front street were soon on the scene. The young men and women were out looking over the car and found only one front fender badly bent and two blow-outs. On finding that nothing was wrong with the steering gear, the machine was backed off the sidewalk and driven to a garage, where it is undergoing repairs.

William L. Reinert, of the W. L. Reinert Clothing company, narrowly escaped being struck down by the car. He and his brother, Adolph Reinert, were returning from the river front. The machine just grazed him.

Useful and Beautiful

HERE we are again to assert that electric current is the most wonderful and beautiful discovery of man. This is not saying there may not be something more beautiful than this agency, or more imperatively a necessity in man's requirements, but take any other article or element and consider its charm and its practicability and you will find it in no wise to compare with the electric current.

And do you know, that is the one particular reason why we like to speak of electric current as woman's handmaiden. It suits her nature and her temperament so exactly. She desires the useful, she has an instinctive longing for the beautiful and so electric current has become her best friend. It's a friend of whose desirability and charm she will never grow tired. It serves her in manifold ways today, it is going to serve her in countless more tomorrow. Silently, in cleanliness and order, it comes to do her bidding and it will never grow weary in her service. A husband, whose means will permit, who does not supply her with this utility is negligent of her best interests and comforts. He is headlessly increasing her toil and her burdens. May be she may be indifferent as to its acquisition, but that is because she is not accustomed to its presence and usage, for once being familiar with them she would realize painfully what a marvelous comfort and convenience it is—a positive necessity where it is possible to acquire it.

This is the useful side of it, its beautiful is just as manifold as the natural taste and love of ornament in woman may choose to put it to. She can with it have her home charmingly elegant, or resplendently ornamental, or each by turns, just as her fancy calls.

The one simple truth is, however, that every house should have electric current, for it is the best and the safest light and in the long run the most economical.

If you haven't it in your home let us talk to you personally about installing it.

Yours to serve

The Portsmouth Street Railroad and Electric Light Co.

SWEETHEART KILLED IN THE GERMAN ARMY

While thousands of families in Europe are mourning the loss of loved ones, killed in the terrible conflict now being waged on that continent, Anna Mohr, of Sixth street, a pretty young German girl, of this city, today is plunged in grief over the death of her brave soldier lover, Miss Gatz, of the German army, to whom she was betrothed.

News of the death of Gatz reached here early Thursday morning in a letter to Miss Mohr from the young man's father, which stated that the young man fell mortally wounded while the German troops were making a charge against the allied forces in the Argonne Woods on April 5.

Thus the horror of the war across the Atlantic is brought home to those living in our own country, Miss Mohr's experience being but one of many that have saddened the hearts of relatives and friends of war victims in the United States.

This spring was to have been the most joyful period in the lives of Miss Mohr and her sweetheart, for it was to have been the time when they were to have plighted their troth in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The outbreak of the war caused a change in their plans, for young Gatz was one of the first civilians in Germany to answer the call of his country's flag after hostilities broke out.

Reluctantly, the bride-to-be consented to a postponement of the wedding until after the war was over. Through all the weeks of fighting she clung to the hope that her lover would be among those spared from the bullet's mark. This hope never left her until the sad news reached her this morning.

Miss Mohr left the Fatherland two years ago to join relatives in this country. Before leaving she promised to return to him when he was ready to take her as his wife. Letters traveled back and forth regularly between the couple, and it was agreed about a year ago that the marriage was to take place this spring at their old home in Germany. Miss Mohr is a sister of Edward M. Mohr, of the firm of Trende Mohr, butchers, of Eleventh street. For the past year she has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Si Straus, of Sixth street.

During the past winter young Gatz's feet were badly frozen while at the front. He was taken to the hospital for treatment, and only recently had recovered sufficiently to rejoin his regiment in the field.

Accompanying the transcript was an appeal bond of $50.

POLICE NEWS

The hearing of Ed Ware on a charge of disorderly conduct, growing out of his mixup with Alonzo Kelly, at the street fair grounds, was resumed Thursday. Several additional witnesses were examined and the court took the view that Ware had been the aggressor, saying that in such a congested place it was expected that people would bump into each other and that such was no provocation for a fight. He accordingly fined him $10.

Theft
John Fisher denied that he had stolen Walter Morgan's bicycle claiming instead that Morgan had given him permission to ride it but the court held him guilty of theft and fined him $10 and costs. The wheel which was at the Mitchell Manufacturing company's plant was ordered turned over to Morgan.

Two men who just drifted in from Jackson Wednesday night giving the names of Sam Caldwell and Henry Ball were fined $10 each for insulting Mrs. Robert Guthrie and two little girls on Front street.

Milk Massage Gives Marvelous Beauty

The startling beautifying results of milk have been known for ages. Ever since milk baths were used in the royal courts of the ancients. But to use milk in such a way would be impossible these days, and no other way has ever been discovered until recently. For the first time it is now possible to obtain all the beautifying properties of milk as a beautifier in the form of a massage cream. This is the only way to have the milk massage cream remain pure and stable for an indefinite length of time. To half a pint of fresh, unskimmed milk, two ounces of powdered lye must be added. There is nothing else known which will give this result. It is simple to make, is more economical than artificial and greasy creams, and those who have used it report the result as astounding. The cream smooths, plumps and purifies the skin, which gives a soft, velvety texture. It is very much in use here, and heart's desire in the matter of a beautiful complexion, and remove wrinkles which heretofore have defied all other means of eradication. It produces a remarkable youthful appearance because of its intense tissue-building properties.

TURNER'S BODY IS RECOVERED

The body of Samuel Turner, aged 50 years, hoisting engineer, 1602 Franklin avenue, who was drowned when a boat capsized while he and son, Arthur Turner, were setting a fish net in the Ohio river last Friday noon, was recovered Thursday morning at 6:45.

The body was discovered by I. V. Sheets, a shantyboatman of the mouth of Carey's Run, who was on his way to the city with a string of fish. He was attracted to the body floating towards shore near the Cottonwoods, a mile below the city.

He fastened the body to some willows and then notified Coroner Dr. Walter Daehler who hurried to the scene. The body was in fair shape considering that it had been in the water for almost a week. The man was dressed in his working clothes. At the request of the family the body of the drowned man was turned over to Undertaker Daehler to be prepared for burial.

The funeral will take place from the late home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Samuel Landenmeyer, pastor of the German Evangelical church, will conduct the services. Burial will be in Greenlawn cemetery.

Leakless Inner Tubes

Goodyear Laminated Tubes
Built Layer on Layer—Extra Thick

Here is something every motorist should know.

Goodyear Laminated Tubes are built of many thin layers—each of pure rubber—vulcanized together. No flaw can be hidden as in a thick piece of rubber. It is seen and eliminated. Every layer is perfect.

Such a Tube can't leak. And our valve patch can't leak, because it is part of the Tube and not stuck on.

Remember that. Many a tire trouble is due to leaky Tubes.

Tube prices this year are reduced 20 per cent. So these layer Tubes, extra-thick, now cost about the same as others.

Always Gray

Goodyear Laminated Tubes are not colored. They are gray—the natural pure rubber color. Color requires a large percentage of mineral adulteration. And minerals hold heat, a Tube's worst enemy.

Whatever tires you use, get Goodyear Tubes. They will outlast your tires, save you looks and trouble. They will also convert you to Goodyear.

Fortified Tires, built by the same high standards.

Any dealer will supply you. (275)

ITALY PREPARES FOR SIEGE OF AUSTRIAN BORDER

Rome, May 12.—(Via Paris, May 13).—Dowager Queen Margherita, mother of King Victor Emmanuel, has given orders that the second floor of her palace be transformed into a hospital for wounded in case of war.

(Uline Italy, May 12.—(Via Paris, May 13).—Every preparation has been made for the proclamation of a state of siege in all the Austrian territory which borders on Italy. The government already is in the hands of the police and militia.

All the Italian troops who are in Austria have been ordered to leave the frontier in great numbers. It is estimated that 40,000 have left Trieste alone, while the total will aggregate 120,000. Large contingents of Austrian troops are constantly arriving at Trieste and points in Gorz and Gradisca. It is asserted in military circles here that Austria has been quietly gathering this new army for possible operations.

At some points on the frontier Austrian and Italian troops are in such close contact that they can see each other. The Austrians have occupied strongly fortified entrenchments. The bridge leading to Pontebba, just across the Italian frontier, has been mined and the bridges across the Isonzo river, Traine and auto bridges which cross these bridges are compelled to travel at a snail's pace. Many German officers are with the Austrian troops camped near Gorz and Trieste.

PRESIDENT PUTS FINISHING TOUCHES ON NOTE

INTERESTS FRIENDLY TO GERMANY BELIEVE BERLIN WILL ACCEDE

Washington, D. C., May 13.—President Wilson during the forenoon today put the finishing touches on the note to be dispatched during the day to Germany demanding guarantees that attacks on merchantmen carrying non-combatants shall end and for cooperation for violations of American rights in the war zone.

The note will not be made public here until after it has been put in code, which probably will be late today and when the document has been started on its way to Berlin.

Note Positive On U. S. Position

Few changes are believed to have been made in the document, the main principles as outlined to the cabinet on Tuesday being maintained.

While couched in friendly terms, it is firm. It does not say what steps will be taken or what course will be pursued in the event of an unfavorable reply but indicates that the United States will spare no pains either by diplomatic representations or otherwise to obtain acquiescence in its position.

Diplomatists Interested In Text

The text of the note was eagerly awaited by official Washington. The unofficial outpourings published today increased the anxiety to learn the exact phrasing of the document. Diplomatists were especially interested in the text which they were prepared to cable to their governments as a matter of information as soon as copies could be obtained.

It is known positively that the United States has had no conversation either in Washington or in the foreign capitals with other governments concerning the note or the course that will be pursued should Germany refuse to comply.

Believe Germany Will Accede

In some quarters friendly to Germany, the impression prevailed that the Berlin government would accede to the American demands and state its expectation that the United States would endeavor to secure the unrestricted passage of food stuffs and conditional contraband consigned to the civilian population of Germany.

When the note is finally dispatched to Ambassador Gerard a copy of it will be delivered here to the German embassy. It will be transmitted via Rome and

SET STAGE FOR NAVAL WAR GAME

New York, May 13.—The setting of the great naval war game to be played somewhere off the Atlantic coast after the Atlantic fleet leaves here next Tuesday already has begun, while the defending fleet lies in the Hudson river awaiting the grand review by President Wilson next Monday. Four vessels of the auxiliary division which is to compose part of the attacking fleet, now are steaming toward an uneventful rendezvous at sea, having left here yesterday.

The mobilization of the Atlantic fleet here had been completed today by the arrival of three divisions of torpedo flotilla.

MISSISSIPPI FOR WILSON

Jackson, Miss., May 13.—Governor Brewer, of Mississippi, in a statement here today declared that as Americans had been warned not to take passage on the British steamship "Mistral," he could not understand why the United States would quarrel with Germany because Americans lost their lives as a result of the torpedoing of the vessel.

Governor Brewer declared, however, that any action taken by President Wilson would meet with the unanimous approval of the people of Mississippi.

BRITISH BATTLESHIP SUNK, 500 LOSE LIVES

London, May 13.—The British battleship Goliath, has been torpedoed in the Dardanelles. It is feared that 500 have been lost.

GOV. HIRAM JOHNSON ABHORS MILITARISM, ADVOCATES PEACE BUT BELIEVES IN WORTH OF GOOD "PUNCH"

Berkeley, Calif., May 13.—Governor Hiram W. Johnson in an address delivered at commencement exercises of the University of California yesterday said:

"I yield to none in the abhorrence of pure militarism; I yield to none in the advocacy of peace; and I yield myself never to strike a blow. But a good punch, well delivered, is often an efficacious remedy."

LONDON CLAIMS ALLIED ADVANCE IN GALLIPOLI; LONDON RIOTING CEASES

London, May 13.—London was cheered today by the publication of a dispatch from Athens recording a decided advance of the British and French troops along the Gallipoli Peninsula. Some reports even claimed the occupation of certain heights which would mean that the entire Peninsula was under the control of the invaders.

At two points on the western line of operations offensive movements are under way. The first, initiated by the Germans, is against the British, French and Belgian forces near Ypres, while the second is the pushing of French troops against the Germans to the North of Arras. For the moment, however, both of these attacks would appear to have been checked.

On the Bukovina frontier Petrograd reports a brilliant success won by the Russian cosack cavalry over the Austrian infantry. The Russian horsemen, forcing their way through a series of barbed wire entanglements dislodged the Austrians from three lines of trenches and captured 2,000 prisoners, a battery of quick firing guns, several searchlights, and a whole string of caissons.

Russia admits that the Austro-German offensives still are proceeding in western Galicia while Vienna claims that the Russian retreat is fast becoming a rout with the invaders suffering enormous losses.

The anti-German feeling is dying down in England but it is reported as continuing with great intensity in the United States.

DETROIT STREET CAR MEN GO ON STRIKE; SERVICE IS TIED UP

Detroit, Mich., May 13.—Not a city street car was being operated in Detroit at 10 o'clock this forenoon as the result of a strike called by the Detroit United Railway conductors and motormen because of the company's refusal to reinstate a motorman who had been discharged for alleged careless handling of his car. The strike was taken during the early morning hours and was practically unanimous.

Although the walkout had been threatened for 24 hours, thousands of factory employees and downtown workmen who had depended on the street cars were from one to three hours late in reporting to work.

No disorder was in evidence when the men took their work to the hands on the final run. Extra squads of police were called out, however, and steps taken to quell any disturbance which might arise.

Early the D. U. R. officials refused to make any statement as to what action they would take. They declared, however, that the men had violated terms of their work agreement with the company in that they had not first submitted their case for arbitration. The men, on the other hand, declared that the company had repeatedly violated its side of the working agreement and that while the case of the discharged motorman lay directly to the strike, other factors, including unsatisfactory working conditions, induced them to walk out.

Peter Whelan, the discharged motorman, is an officer in the local union of street railway employees.

German-Americans Endorse President

Rochester, N. Y., May 13.—At the conclusion of a meeting of the German-American Alliance held here last night, President William O'Connell issued the following statement:

"Although the organization did not take definite action, the sentiment was in favor of unqualified support of the President in whatever action he takes. The German-Americans of this city are united in every respect in support of the policy of the administration."

WM. BARNES TO TESTIFY TODAY IN LIBEL SUIT

Syracuse, N. Y., May 13.—The prospect of seeing William Barnes on the witness stand drew to the supreme court here today a crowd as large as any that assembled in the early days of the trial of Mr. Barnes when Theodore Roosevelt was testifying in his own behalf.

Counsel for Mr. Barnes made it known last night that he probably would go on the stand sometime today and declared (this morning that nothing had happened to change their plans.)

Counsel for both principals agreed that the trial of the trial was being probably by Wednesday of next week.

ANTI-GERMAN RIOTS IN JOHANNESBURG

Johannesburg, Union of South Africa, May 13.—There have been a series of violent anti-German demonstrations in Johannesburg, which culminated yesterday in the wrecking of a number of German and Austrian establishments.

Altogether over fifty buildings have been wholly or partly wrecked and their contents either burned or reduced to match-wood. The establishments cleaned out include ten large warehouses, ten saloons, three

Miners Ratify Scale Settling Ohio Strike

Wheeling, W. Va., May 13.—In the presence of several thousand cheering miners the convention of United Mine Workers of Ohio, called for the fifth sub-district yesterday, ratified the Cleveland scale of 39 cents a ton for loaders and eight cents for cutters. It was announced that the scale committee would meet the operators at Cleveland within the next 24 hours where it was expected the final papers setting the year out strike in the eastern fields would be signed by both sides.

Laborers are at work in mines in the district cleaning up fallen rock and preparing for an early resumption by 15,000 men.

Washington, May 13.—Hearing of the case of the Riggs National Bank against Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, Comptroller Williams and United States Treasurer Burke was postponed today until next Monday at the request of government attorneys.

Sec'y Daniels Will Not Abandon Review

Washington, May 13.—Secretary Daniels today told inquirers he had not even considered abandoning the review of the Atlantic fleet in New York. When last he talked with President Wilson, Mr. Daniels added, the president had not altered his purpose to go to New York for the review on May 17 and 18.

"Of course," said the secretary, "the president's attendance upon any function is always dependent upon the state of public affairs."

Winnipeg, May 13.—The resignation of the Premier of Manitoba, Sir R. B. Roblin and other officials of the present administration was announced today.

WE'VE HEARD OF IT.

Much attention is being given to the statement of a French general as to what the Allies are going to do with Germany and Austria, when peace is made. Belgium is to be restored and enlarged with a principality or two, Alsace and Lorraine are to be turned back to France, German Poland, Galicia and a huge hunk of the eastern section of both Germany and Austria are to be carved off and used in forming the new kingdom of Poland. Austria is to lose Hungary, Buchovina, Trieste and other provinces and Constantinople is to go to Russia, but the climax will come with the depositions of the Hohenzollerns and the creation of Germany into a republic.

All most wonderful, indeed, but as we have often heard it said, it is always best to catch your rabbit before you proceed to cook it.

PROFITING BY OTHERS' EXPERIENCE.

(Hawatha, (Kau.) World.)

A girl in Hawatha had a proposal of marriage Sunday night, and asked a week to consider it before filing her answer. She then organized herself into an investigating committee and commenced taking testimony from the married ladies of her acquaintance.

The first one she visited used to be a belle and the most admired girl in the town before she was married six years ago. The cross-examination brought out the fact that she had three children, did all her own work, including her washing and ironing and hadn't been down town for four weeks, and that her husband had given her but $2 since she was married, and that he had borrowed and forgot to pay back $10 which her brother once gave her for a Christmas present. He bought him a new overcoat with the money, while she wore the same plush coat that she wore when he was courting her. Another woman, whom she visited, quit teaching school three years ago to marry "the handsome and best-dressed man in town" and she is now supporting him. A third didn't dare say her son was her own when her husband was around, though she used to write some lovely essays when she was at school on the "emancipation of women", and the fourth woman she visited was divorced.

After visiting them and summing up the evidence, she went home and wrote to the young man. She will be married next month.

POPULAR AIRS.

(From the Christian Science Monitor.)

Certain airs possess a quality so infectious as to find a response in the heart of mankind. It is almost impossible to say what the quality is. The man in the street, rather than the musician, makes it his own. It runs like wild fire through a nation for a month or a year. It is reproduced by every barrel organ in the country. You cannot walk down a street without hearing it, or open a window without it floating in. The ordinary mortal cannot say whether it is good or bad, for it may be the "Marseillaise," or it may be "Tara-ra Boon do ra." It is simply there and cannot be got rid of. Years afterwards it may be a classic or it may be a weariness to the flesh. "It's a long way to Tipperary" is one of these, and another is the "Swanee River" which is beginning to be heard floating down the English roads as the dusty columns converge on Salisbury Plain. In a month or two more it will be heard in the trenches in Flanders, for it has the quality which is sure to endure it to "Tommy Atkins," the quality inherent in "Tipperary," and expressed in the line "Dere's where de old folks stay." The "Swanee River" came to stay long ago. Like the "Marseillaise," it has become a classic. What will be the fate of "Tipperary"? Probably it will join the army of marching songs, which is known historically rather than musically.

At the risk of seeming uncharitable, we express the hope that Miss Barbara Rutherford, who is temporarily allied to the Van derbits by marriage and who gets herself in the papers of two continents, because she performed the heroines feat of advising her mother to run to the cellar, when a Zeppelin flew over their Paris home, doesn't look anything like her picture. If she does she has enough to make her a heroine and then some. Judging from her picture and drawing upon the language of the obituary editor, we see her suffering from a complication of diseases, including yellow jaundice, eczema, hives, measles and smallpox.

Pittsburgh it was that started rumors of the assassination of a lot of prominent men. From what we know of the town, it is dirty enough to start anything foul.

THE BETTER PICTURE.

BUILD A HOUSE.

The unusual number of wild birds in and about the city this spring, has been frequently remarked. A cordial invitation should be extended them to abide with us and increase. This can be done to material effect in two ways; by building houses for them and providing food and water. At this time of the year, in fact, all through the warm weather food is not so necessary as water, because warm and insect are prolific enough to the foraging, but water, away from the rivers and creeks, is scarce and expensive. Wild birds are to be found in the bottom, then along the hillside, though the latter is the more natural home for them.

No, sir, you can't stop 'em. The latest is a National Month Hygienic Association. Its particular purpose is to invade and pester the public schools and incidentally, and the incidental is the chief thing, to make a job of teeth inspection for some small politician, who can't earn a decent livelihood of his own effort.

Just a moment ago we heard a bunch of citizens earnestly discussing where the N. & W. was going to locate that new passenger depot. And yet this year we are not even cheered with the announcement that the N. & W. is going to build that new station—next year.

There is one ill of the future of which we are duly forewarned. That bad old Indian, Vic Hincra, has announced his purpose of becoming a naturalized citizen of these United States. He shows his incapacity, however, by declaring that base ball is tire some and foolish.

Just to put yourself in his place in trying to imagine how mad Johnny Bull gets when a submarine slips into one of his harbors and blows up a ship, how would we feel if somebody should torpedo the battle ship Boone as she peacefully swung at anchor in the local harbor?

A month has gone by since our good young Governor issued an urgent invitation to a lot of Democrats to vacate their jobs, and the invitation was gently, but firmly declined. And the pesky Democrats are still on the job.

May be the reason Scioto county's representative is ducking votes on so many bills is because all his time and energy are being consumed in the patriotic task of gerrymandering the congressional districts.

Genius will burst all bounds. That literary gem that his honor of the Peerless produced as a Mother's day proclamation, has been faked in whole and altogether by the mayor of Ironton.

Geutle spring is certainly more than coy in her advances this year.

Pushing Work

The Mount Vernon Bridge company is pushing work on the super-structure of the new county bridge, which is to span the Scioto river with all possible haste to make up for the delay suffered the past few weeks. The first two girders connecting the Portsmouth end abutment and the first pier were installed Wednesday in less than three hours time.

If you have a room which is not occupied you should be using TIMES WANT ADS.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets

will relieve your indigestion. Many people in this town have used them and we have yet to hear of a case where they have failed. We know the formula. Sold only by us—25c a box. Wursler Bros.

Having suspiciously opened the base ball season by administering that promised beating to Chillicothe we will now sit back and wait until it comes the turn of Ironton to provide a little amusement for our diamond champions. Strange how those two towns, Chillicothe and Ironton, just fit into our scheme of blissfulness in a base ball sense.

Hoorny! W not only got a bid to the big feed Saturday night when Governor Willis and Senator Harding are to be given the glad hand, but we also have been promised a seat at the "first table" by General John Hall, the man in charge of the tickets. What more could mortal want to complete his happiness?

The attention of Admiral Brewster, of the good ship Boone, is respectfully called to the fact that Carranza, one of the numerous Mexican presidents, has sent an agent to this country with enough money to buy a few ships and start a navy.

When we read on the inside page of the sinking of the Lusitania and a trawler we conclude no game is too large nor too small for the German submarine.

Sketches of Life OLD NEW YORK

New York, May 13.—A new shop adjacent to Broadway, on Thirtieth street is now offering first aid to bachelors. It is called The Mending Shop and until it was opened by two girls just out of high school there wasn't any place in all New York where a man could put and have a stray button replaced on his coat or a hole in the toe of his sock plugged.

The shop has the unqualified support of every man who has tried to maintain close relationship between his trousers and a pair of suspenders by means of safety pins and bits of cord. When a man enters he is met by a matronly woman who says: "Now, just what is the trouble?" Shamefacedly the man points to where once a regular button along to his coat in dim, distant days.

Then one of the shop workers—seven young girls are employed—is called and she sews on the button. The charge is 5 cents.

William Farnum, the well known middle weight, with his beautifully curled hair and looking every inch like one of the Brummell boys, put on his combination gladiator and plunger, mixing suit the other day and earned a full day's pay.

For some time Farnum has simply been known as an actor with a $100,000 policy on his life. Now he is called the William Fox pure white hope. He lends his presence to Fox at his various theatres as a main attraction for the films. In a picture called "The Plunderer" for Farnum enacts the role of Bill Matthews. The scene is in a mining town called Goldpan, where Lily Meredith, conducts a "neat" tango parlor.

Farnum becomes the pure white hope in the parlor. A strike is on in the mine. Trouble. Belts Park, is shot. Who has done this deed and who will avenge his death? Why Bill Farnum takes on the entire local 388 of the Goldpan miners. Union and liars then to a fizzle. After he walks over their prostrate bodies he finds that he has lost about ten inches of outside and most of his combination gladiator suit but what are such things to a hero?

New York now has a Japanese telephone directory, containing a complete alphabetical list of all the Japanese firms and homes which have telephones. The names are printed in both English and Japanese for our switchboard operators as yet do not understand the language of Nippon, although they can understand at times the residents of Brooklyn who say "hoit" for hurt "saw" for saw and "bean" for bean.

The Jap directory reveals the fact that there is a Japanese 116-let—the Kawasoyu—in East Nineteenth street—as well as several Japanese ten rooms which have been overlooked in the recent census.

Incidentally one of the most popular songs in New York just now has a Japanese lull and croning Japanese melody of love as its basis.

It is called "I Want To Go To Tokio."

The Health Board inspectors have stirred up another mess. Not so long ago they ordered mufflers on the city roosters and fixed a curfew rule for cats. Now they are after the New York honey bee. They want to take measures to keep citizens from being stung.

It isn't generally known that there are upwards of a thousand bee-keepers. Some of our well known sky scrapers are roofed with apertures from the main chimneys over to the elevator shaft.

Thus it is that several millions of bee workers in the five boroughs start for business each morning, buzzing from flower to flower, from candy store to candy store. So long as they attend to their own business and do not interfere with the regular taxpayers—all is well, but something ago business being bad in the floriculture sections some of the bees got tied down to work in a candy store. It is a long established fact that candy girls cannot do their best work surrounded by bees.

A Creed
Faith in him who calls me friend
Faith in what is sweet and clean
Faith that just around the bend
All is peaceful and serene
Faith that after care and strife
Come the happy days of rest
Faith that everything in life
Really happens for the best

This my faith and this my shield
Against the arrows of distrust
Much of justice is concealed
In what seems to be unjust
Now, what seems a dismal way
That alone I'm forced to tread
I may come to see some day
Is a glorious path instead.

Undisturbed by petty wrongs
Undismayed by what is mean
Though the false attracts the throngs
Through the multitude's unclean

Though at times I stand alone
Though I'm oft misunderstood
Faith I still would keep and own
In the decent and the good.

POLLY AND HER PALS

OH! WELL CHIN CHIN HAS HIS CUTE L' L WAYS.

LOCAL RESIDENTS HAVE RELATIVES IN LIBAU

Mr. And Mrs. Isaac Quasser Fear For Loved One's Safety

With the greatest anxiety that Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Quasser and Goodman Rosenberg of this city were told from their relatives who were in the city of Libau, the German capital, that the German people have not only in Libau, but in Riga, another principal port, and another small town in the vicinity. The Saturday morning that Libau had been captured did not carry any information about lives being lost and relatives there are hoping for the best. Mr. Quasser has a brother, sister and cousin in Libau. Mr. Quasser's mother, Mrs. Rachel Quasser, lives in Libau. He also has a married sister with whom his mother makes her home. Several cousins who live in and near Libau have not been heard of for several months.

Mr. Quasser had a letter from his mother Tuesday, but the letter contained very little war news. She spoke of no close danger, and the capture of the town was a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Quasser, who think their relatives would certainly have known that German were in the vicinity. Several letters received in the past month contained word about the dropping of a small number of bombs, which did little or no damage. In speaking of a visit from the German occupying the relatives in the war zone, would write to his wife.

Mr. Quasser has a brother, Dr. Abraham, who when the war first broke out, moved from Libau to Petrograd.

Mr. Quasser had two married sisters in Libau, whom he has not heard from since that place was captured by the Germans in November. He does not know whether they have perished.

Mr. and Mrs. Quasser live at 2023 Third street. Their name to this country came here two years ago. Mrs. Quasser will be here five years in June. Since then they have never visited their relatives. A $2,000,000 war has been about two years ago at Libau, but after about a year work was suspended when it was discovered the bomb was not deep enough for the large war vessels. Libau and Riga have no troops and a very small number of soldiers were stationed in the two places.

Mr. Rosenberg, employed at the D. Tabold and Company, place, on Broad street, who has only been in this country for sixteen months, has his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Rosenberg, living in Libau. His oldest brother, H. Rosenberg, lives in Riga and is in charge of a large lumber export business. A branch of the business is "exporting" in Libau. G. Rosenberg was in Libau, Cape Colony, Africa, for five years previous to his coming to the United States. He visited at home for four months before sailing for America, but while there heard nothing about a near approach of the Germans. The last letter he received from home folks was about two months ago, and like all other letters he received, contained no news of the war. Word is not expected from the relatives in the war zone on account of the Germans being in possession of the town.

WOMAN IS GRABBED BY A NEGRO BRUTE

TURNER'S BODY IS RECOVERED

Charles W. Joyce, a street car conductor, was the next victim of a negro brute at Libau. He was 3023 Gallia street, shortly after 8 o'clock Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Joyce had gone out into the back yard to get a bucket of water from the cistern, when a negro sprang from the darkness and seized her by the arm. Mrs. Joyce screamed and struggling desperately, managed to tear herself from the fellow's grasp. Mrs. Lettie Hutchins, wife of Thomas Radcliff, an N. & W. fireman of Walnut street, who had come to spend the night with her sister, Mrs. Joyce, saw the negro falling into her arms in a dead faint. It was some time before she revived and recovered from the shock.

Clara Stanley, an N. & W. car repairer, George Carter, and other neighbors began a search for the negro. Suddenly Mr. Carter heard noises in the coal shed at the rear of the Joyce home. Just as Mr. Stanley rounded the corner of the shed he caught sight of the negro sitting at a workbench. He fired several pistol shots at him, but they went wide their mark and he succeeded in escaping up the hill.

The police were notified and a squad of officers was rushed to the scene, but although the whole neighborhood was searched, no trace could be found of the negro. Jones, a detective in that vicinity, complains that East Portsmouth has been overrun with strange negroes for several days past. Mrs. Joyce has been in poor health for several months past and her experience of Wednesday night has greatly aggravated her condition.

STATEMENT ISSUED ABOUT PLUMBERS CONTROVERSY

Attorney Nicholas Klein, of Cincinnati, has given The Times the following statement concerning the plumbers' troubles, which covers all late developments:

Signed statement issued by Nicholas Klein, attorney for the Building Trades Council, Portsmouth, O., May 12, 1915:

In an endeavor to avoid a general strike of the entire Building Trades of Portsmouth, our Union sent a letter to the Master Plumbers, asking for an arbitration committee, so as to arbitrate all differences and reach a peaceful agreement. This evening I had a conference with Judge Blair, attorney for the Master Plumbers Association, and I asked him for an arbitration committee, also stating that the Union did not want to strike, and they believe that the matter could be settled in a peaceful, sensible manner. The Master Plumbers refused to arbitrate and their attorney, Judge Blair, refused to discuss the matter.

Thus the situation becomes critical, and it may be that the Union will have to take other steps. The Union had a contract with each Master Plumber, which contract expires the thirtieth day of April, 1917. The Master Plumbers, themselves, have broken this contract and have entered into an agreement, which I consider unlawful, to break their contracts and lock out all the men, which they have done.

Thus, organized labor is face to face with the desperate situation. In all probability, I shall prepare notices at once to be sent to each Master Plumber and if they persist in their unlawful combination I shall sue each one of them individually, for damages, for breach of contract, and will also sue the association as an unlawful conspiracy, and ask that it be dissolved by the court. We desire to avoid a strike which would cripple the city, because we believe in peace, just as President Wilson in his crisis, which he is handling in such a splendid manner. If anything does come, it will be forced upon us by the Master Plumbers Association, as it seems they have no respect whatsoever for contracts in more than some of European nations, have had for treating. The Master Plumbers consider a contract a scrap of paper. Union men and women are very anxious that there shall be no strike and the public can rest assured that we will do every honorable thing to avoid it. I have an excellent committee acting with me, composed of the following well known gentlemen: Harry Strong, business agent of the Building Trades Council; M. D. Cunningham, president of the Central Labor Council; Harry Saunders, president of the Journeymen Plumbers; and William Tilton, president of the Building Trades Council, and I rely upon them absolutely. I am leaving for my office at Cincinnati, but expect to keep in touch with the situation here.

Auto Skidded And Crashed Into Tree

The five passenger car of Charles Everling, containing Everling, a gentleman friend, and two young women, came near flipping in a serious accident near Front and Chillicothe streets Wednesday night, about ten o'clock. Everling came east on Front street at a fair rate of speed, but two feet to make the turn through the flood wall opening onto Chillicothe street. The street was wet from the rain, and the machine skidded clear to the east side of Chillicothe street, jumped the curb and crashed into a tree in front of the Times office. The impact of the machine hitting the tree and two blow-outs was heard for half a square, and a number of residents of Front street were woken on the scene. The young men and women were out looking over the car and found only one front fender badly bent and two blow-outs. On finding that nothing was wrong with the steering gear, the machine was backed off the sidewalk and driven to a garage, where it is undergoing repairs.

Taxi Was Disabled

A taxi cab belonging to the Independent Taxi Company sprung an axle at the foot of the hill leading to the temporary bridge, at Scioto Point late Wednesday afternoon.

Paul Eschborn and a party of friends were returning from a trip to the West Side in the taxi. It was brought to a stop to give clear way to a heavy horse and buggy descending the hill and it was in starting up again that the break occurred. Another taxi was sent to the rescue and towed the disabled car to the company's garage on Ninth street.

A little girl, about four years old, was crossing the tracks and her foot got caught in a "frog." Two other small girls who noticed a train approaching, ran, leaving the little tot behind to care for herself. Gibson who was lowering the gates was sure the train would strike her but she managed to pull her foot out before the train shot by.

ALLIED FLEET AGAIN SHELLS DARDANELLES

Paris, May 13.—A Havas dispatch from Athens says:

"An Allied fleet re-entered the Dardanelles last night and bombarded the forts at Kilit-Bahr, Channak Kalesi and Nagara. The bombardment was interrupted at 8 o'clock but was resumed three hours later and is being continued."

Although the Turks have been strongly re-inforced, the bombardment from allied warships is causing them heavy losses and they are steadily losing ground. Turkish trenches are filled with bodies.

London, May 13.—Assertions that the towns of Channak Kalesi, Maitos and Kilit Bahr now are nothing but smoking ruins are contained in a series of belated dispatches dated May 5, 8 and 9, received by The Times from Moudros on the island of Lemnos. Their destruction is said to have been unavoidable since they lay in the direct line of the fleet's fire.

The dispatches state that the forts in the straits gradually are being overcome and it is believed a general assault is in progress against the heights of Achi Baba, the capture of which is necessary to a complete clearance of the straits. There are persistent reports at Moudros that these heights have been taken and that the entire stretch of peninsula from Cape Helles to Kilit Bahr now is in the Allies' hands.
